HUERTA IS GAINING STRENGTH OF REBELS

Carranza Evacuates Saltillo and Government Force Replaces Him To-day

BORDER FIGHT WAS STARTED BY MEXICANS

Col. Guilfoyle Has Two Troops
With Machine Gun on Observation Point

ONE WAS WOUNDED IN EXCHANGE OF SHOTS

Mexico City, March 5.—A general information to recognize General Huerta's administration is being manifested by the rebels in all parts of the republic.
Nearly all the rebel leaders have now fallen in line, asking either that they be incorporated in the regular army or mustered out.
No significance has been added to the northern insurrection of Governor Carranza of Coahuila. Some adherents of Carranza, far to the west of Zacatecas burned railroad bridges. Carranza is preparing to evacuate Saltillo and a government force is expected to replace him late to-day. As the government has not received satisfactory advice from Governor Maytorena of Sonora,
the war office will call on Pasqual
Ortega to proceed against him.

Washington, D. C., March 5.—Mexican troops were responsible for the latest border fight near Douglas, Ariz., with troops of the Ninth Cavalry by firing the first shot, according to a report to-day from Brigadier-general Bliss at Fort Sam Houston. The general says Col. Guilfoyle reported that an armed body of Mexicans, apparently Yaquis, moved out of Agua Prieta yesterday morning, deployed and fired a few shots at a detached post, about a thousand yards south of the camp on the boundary.
An American machine gun replied with five shots and the Mexicans retreated towards Agua Prieta. Col. Guilfoyle makes no mention of any casualties, but says he has two troops with a machine gun on observation at the points where the trouble occurred. He says no cause is known for the attack,
as no provocation of any kind was given by the American soldiers.

General Bliss reports that he has instructed Col. Guilfoyle, in case of a further attack, not to return the fire unless it is necessary to protect life on the American side. He also has cautioned him to keep his men under cover as far as possible so as not to invite hostile action from irresponsible parties.
Detailed reports which have reached the state department of the first collision between American troops and Mexicans near Douglas, Ariz., make it appear that this was the work of Ma-deristas and while the Mexican federal forces were not at first involved, they were in the end drawn into the long range rifle duel and only one person was wounded.

Douglas, Ariz., March 5.—Mexican authorities at Agua Prieta declared today that two Mexican soldiers were killed by the machine gun used by the troopers of the Ninth Cavalry in the skirmish on the border near here.
This makes a total of six federal soldiers killed since Sunday, when the first fight occurred. None of the American troopers has been even wounded.

PEACE FOOTING FOR GERMAN ARMY WILL NUMBER 1,000,000 MEN

Cologne, Germany, March 5.—The new German military bill will add 84,000 recruits to the annual contin-gent called up for service in the army,
according to the well-informed Volks Zeitung. The total strength of the peace footing of the army will thus be increased by 184,000 men, bringing it up to 366,000, excluding officers.
The German war office sent to-day telegraph orders for the commencement of the new barracks along the frontiers, showing that the military authorities are certain of the passage of the bill through the Imperial Parliament.

DISASTER OVERTAKES YOUTHFUL ROBBERS

New York, March 5.—Disaster overtook two youthful hold-up men in Brooklyn to-day. One had his back pierced by a knife thrown by a Chinaman they had robbed; the other was fatally wounded by his own revolver.
The latter, Frank Klebold, fell on the pavement when a policeman struck at him, discharging the gun. The bullet in his hand. The bullet entered his brain.

BALKAN ALLIES ARE READY FOR POWERS PEACE ARBITRATION

London, March 5.—It was announced to-day that all the Balkan allies have individually accepted in principle, the mediation of the European powers for the conclusion of peace with Turkey.
Each of them emphasized, however, the necessity for a consultation with the other nations forming the Balkan League before giving formal agreement.

EXPRESS CONFIDENCE IN AFFAIRS OF BANK

Chairman of Canadian Financial Institution Refers to Dominion Borrowing

STRONG DEMAND FOR MONEY CONTINUING

London, March 5.—Less than a dozen shareholders attended the annual meeting of the Bank of British North America to-day testifying as one shareholder remarked to the confidence of the shareholders. C. W.
Tomkinson, chairman of the board,
announced that of the profits, £49,999 would go to a dividend of one share, £30,000 to the reserve fund, £15,000 to the bank premises account, and he further promised £7,000 for a bonus to the staff. Speaking of the future, the chairman said, that the strong demand for money seemed likely to continue owing to the rapidly growing population of Canada which required ample supplies of fresh capital. It would not be wise to overlook the fact that activity in trade in Canada had been multiplied to some extent by the spending of profits arising out of real estate transactions.
Canadians had been very large borrowers on the London market during the past few years, which was quite a healthy sign of the country's growth so long as the capital obtained was wisely and economically spent. At the same time the appetite of the English investing public was limited and there were now signs of an attack of indignation for the investing public in quite a number of cases had failed to come forward to relieve the underwriters. The present time, went on Mr. Tomkinson, was very unfavorable for fresh capitalizations owing to activity in trade at home. In the London market we have a fairly wide acquaintance with these persons who undertake these new issues and we think it would be wise of them not to do so without first realizing the difficulties they have to meet and the high rates they may be required to pay.
Concerning prospects for this next year in Canada Mr. Tomkinson said emigration seemed likely to reach four hundred thousand and there was good reason to believe a larger crop, while ever before would be under crop, while it was not likely that last year's unfavorable weather would be repeated.

TORPEDO BOAT SINKS SIXTY-FIVE DROWNED

Surgeon, Engineer and Fifteen Men Rescued in North Sea Accident

Holigoland, Germany, March 5.—
Sixty of the crew of the German torpedo boat G-178 were drowned when the little vessel was rammed by the cruiser York in the North Sea last night. Among the dead are the commander of the torpedo boat, Lieut.
Koch, and his first officer. The surgeon and engineer and fifteen men of the crew were saved. The torpedo boat sank immediately.

The destroyer was one of the newest in the German fleet. It displaced 536 tons and carried a complement of eighty-four officers and men.

G-178 was returning during the night
from manoeuvres in which it had participated with the German battleship fleet, the cruiser squadron and sixty-four other torpedo boat destroyers.

The destroyers attempted to pass through the intervals in the column of warships, while the latter were steaming ahead at full speed. The commander of the G-178 calculated the distance incorrectly and his boat was cut completely in halves by the cruiser York and sank immediately.

The York signalled the accident to the other vessels of the fleet, which slowed down and cruised round in the vicinity flashing their searchlights in all directions. Small boats were lowered from all the vessels and succeeded in picking up two of the officers and seven of the crew of the sunken destroyer.

LONDON'S OPINIONS ON WILSON'S ADDRESS

"Telegraph" Sees Remarkable and Vivid Period Ahead for United States

ALL AGREE ON ITS IDEALISTIC TONE

Welcome Reminder of Better Things and Manlier Strivings, Says "Graphic"

"BRAVE BRIGHT MAN," SAYS "DAILY MAIL"

London, March 5.—While paying a tribute of admiration to the earnest and lofty tone of President Wilson's address, the London morning papers express doubt that he will succeed in translating it into practical politics.

The Daily Telegraph says: "President Wilson has plucked the string of pure idealism whose sound may be pleasant in the ears of his countrymen,
but if congress is to join in the work of reform it probably will be in response to irresistible movements in the nation, rather than in deference to the desires expressed by the president.
Whatever happens, however, his presidential term is certain to be a remarkable and vivid period in the modern United States."

The Morning Post says: "It remains to be seen whether President Wilson is a great statesman. But at least it may be said that his address has not less remarkable because not pugnacious. It strikes a new note in American politics, of what over here we call reform."

The Graphic says: "Every thoughtful man will wish the president good luck. Echoes of his noble address will bring to the old world of ours, in its mad pursuit, international uncharit-ableness and bloodshed schemes and military holocausts, a welcome reminder of better things and manlier strivings."

"The United States must be heartily congratulated upon having such a true Democrat and such a fearless statesman at its head," says the Daily Chronicle, "and when some of the greatest nations seem to be making a mockery of humanity, his claxon calls should echo far beyond the American shores."

The Daily Mail says: "President Wilson has set up a fine ideal, and, like a brave and bright man, has delivered himself into the hands of his judges by giving them a measure by which to test his loyalty to his cause and his fitness to undertake it."

The Express describes Mr. Wilson's address as that of an academic professor called upon to deal with practical politics full of noble sound, but difficult to tell what it may signify.

The Daily Mail thinks that the president's address conveys a somewhat too black impression of modern American life and conditions. "It deals chiefly in generalities," says the paper, "and makes no very specific proposals. But one fact appears clearly—that the era of free competition is ended in America and the day of government control of industry is at hand."

Referring to the difficult task before President Wilson, the Mail expresses the fear that foreign complications, such as the Mexican situation, may hinder internal reform.

FRANCE PREPARES TO MEET GERMAN ACTION IN MILITARY MATTERS

Paris, March 5.—The French cabinet to-day accepted the decision of the supreme council of war in favor of a three-year term of service in all branches of the army instead of two years, as hitherto. The bill will be submitted to the chamber of deputies to-morrow.

The measure will add at least 210,000
men to the peace footing of the army, which at present stands at 530,000, excluding officers.

The vast military preparations being made by Germany are given as the compelling reason for this step of the French government.

UNCONSCIOUS FIVE MONTHS, RECOVERING

Spokane, Wash., March 5.—After lying unconscious for five months, the subject of the professional attentions of a dozen Spokane and Hillyard physicians and surgeons, Irene Burns, 16 years old, daughter of J. C. Burns, of Hillyard, shows signs of recovery, though her condition still puzzles the doctors. It was possible to stand the girl up against the wall and leave her in that position for hours.

FRIEDMANN CURE IS BLOCKED BY BOARD

Abandons Plans for Testing
His Tuberculosis
Treatment

GERMAN PHYSICIAN WITHOUT LICENSE

New York, March 5.—Dr. F. Fried-mann, of Berlin, to-day abandoned all plans of testing his tuberculosis treatment in any New York hospital with the sanction of the board of health.
This had been suggested by the New York County Medical Society as the only course to pursue, inasmuch as he has no license to practice in this state.

The board of health considered the matter last night, and although Dr.
Ernest J. Lederle, commissioner of health, said that in his opinion the treatment was harmless, the advisory committee of the board voted against making any tests on patients.

Dr. Lederle then gave out this statement: "On the advice of the advisory committee it has been decided not to undertake at the present time any clinical test of any special treatment for tuberculosis."

He added, however, that if Dr. Fried-mann cared to give the board a sample of his treatment "we will make certain tests, but not on patients."

Dr. Friedmann remained at his hotel this morning and did not announce what he would do.

FIRST WILSON CRANK MAKES AN APPEARANCE

Washington, D. C., March 5.—Allenists to-day will examine the first "crank" of the Wilson administration. The man gives his name as Dr. Charles A.
Schwab, of Dallas, Texas. He is being detained in the Washington asylum in which institution he was placed yesterday when arrested by secret service men on his arrival. The man said he was on his way to the White House to be sworn in as president, and he had in his possession a number of written messages purporting to have been sent him by Chief Justice White, of the Supreme Court. It is believed that he wrote them himself.

RUN IS STARTED ON BANK AT MONTREAL

City and District Main Office and Branches Besieged by Depositors

DIRECTORS MEET THE PEOPLE WITH SMILES

Montreal, March 5.—With a rush of densely packed humanity, the run on the City District Bank, which started here yesterday afternoon, started again with renewed force when the bank and its thirteen branches throughout the city opened its doors this morning.
An array of clerks with bank bills piled high in front of them met the advancing avalanche with smiling faces, counted out bills by the thousands all morning and greeted all comers pleasantly.

At the St. Catherine street west branch of the bank the most exciting scenes of all were witnessed. Thousands of people surrounded the building blocking the thoroughfare, stopping all street car traffic. Policemen fought the crowd back, the doors were closed for a time and excitement reignited. When quiet was restored the crowds were let in by instalments.
By noon to-day the run on the head office of the bank had dwindled down perceptibly. The sight of the bank directors inviting the people in with smiling faces, and of the paying tellers handling out thousand dollar bills with completeness staggered the panic stricken crowd and hundreds went to other branches and re-deposited their savings. "It is absolutely senseless this run," declared officials of the Bank of Montreal. The latter is prepared to back the City and District Bank to any extent in this matter. "It is a public calamity," declared Hon. J.
A. Culmet, president of the City and District Bank, "many of these people will be robbed when they get outside. But we cannot argue with 147,000 depositors. One must pay them and we will pay them to the last cent if necessary."

BLOCK WOMEN SUFFRAGE.

Boston, Mass., March 5.—The cause of women's suffrage was blocked in Massachusetts and in Maine legislatures to-day, where house committees voted bills out. In Maine the vote was 50 to 52, and in Massachusetts 4 to 3, and 2 not recorded.

SENATE CONFIRMS WILSON'S CABINET

President Will Not See Applicants for Office Unless by Invitation

MARBLE TO SUCCEED FRANKLIN K. LANE

Washington, D. C., March 5.—With the senate meeting at noon to confirm President Wilson's cabinet, the new chief executive held his first conference with his official family to-day.
A chair was placed in position around the long table in the room in which the cabinets of the past have deliberated. This was intended for William B. Wilson, of Pennsylvania, as secretary of the new department of labor. Mr. Wilson stepped from a lost seat in the House to his new chair.

From present appearances, the family council of the new president promises to be a friendly and harmonious one. Many of its members have long been fellow strivers in the fight for the supremacy of the Democratic party.

During the first few hours of the new administration, the president was officially, if not actually, surrounded by Republican advisers in the members of the retiring cabinet. They could not, under the law, lay down the burdens of their several offices until their successors had been confirmed.

President Wilson will reappoint Edward A. Clark, of Iowa, a member of the interstate commerce commission.
Mr. Clark was reappointed by Mr.
Taft, but his nomination failed of confirmation in the senate contest over other Taft appointments.

John H. Marble, of California, secretary of the interstate commerce commission, and formerly its attorney, will be appointed a member of the commission to succeed Franklin K. Lane, who becomes secretary of the interior.
In the first statement Woodrow Wilson has issued from the White House since he became president, he announced to-day he should decline to see applicants for office in person, except those he invited.

LIBERALS MAINTAIN NAVAL BILL FIGHT

No Sign of Weakening on Either Side of House of Commons

TWENTY MEN SHIFTS OF LIBERALS ATTEND

Mr. Hazen Called on for Source of Information on Battleship Cost

DEBATE CONTINUING THROUGHOUT THE DAY

Ottawa, Ont., March 5.—The grim struggle in the House of Commons
over the naval proposals is still going on without any indication of weakening on either side. The Opposition shifts of twenty men keep replacing one another with the regularity of clock work. When one speaker is through another is ready to take his place and the ceaseless discussion of the bill goes on without anything to suggest that the members are tiring. The task of the ministerial members is perhaps not such a pleasant one, because they have to sit for long hours listening to criticism of the measure to which they cannot reply without adding the designs of the Opposition, but they are sticking as cheerfully to the task as could be expected under the circumstances.

During the early morning hours until five o'clock the debate ran along smoothly and then there was a breeze of considerable dimensions. W. F. Kay, of Mississquoi spoke from one to two o'clock in support of the Laurier Naval proposals and was followed by O. Turgeon of Gloucester, N. B., one of the long distance orators of the House, who kept up the talk for a couple of hours. Dr. Bland, of Beauce, one of the brightest debaters to the left of the speaker, followed and succeeded in livening matters up, his statements drawing interruptions from Hon. J. D.
Hazen, Major Currie, H. B. Ames and others with the result that there was some rapid cross-firing and laughter on both sides of the House. Shortly after four o'clock the Liberals under the captaincy of E. M. MacDonald were replaced by Hon. Dr. Pugsley and his band of speakers. Some time later trouble commenced to develop. Dr.
Pugsley said that Mr. Hazen had promised to give the House some information relating to the cost of building a 23,000 ton battleship in the United States.

Mr. Hazen had informed the House that the cost of construction was $125 per ton more than the cost in Great Britain. His own information was that the cost in the United States instead of being higher was actually $2 less. Mr. Hazen, he asserted, should give his authority. He added that Premier Borden had placed erroneous information before the House. Mr.
Hazen replied that the secretary of war
for the United States was his authority.
He did not propose to give any further information at the present time.

Mr. Pugsley—That is no excuse.
Mr. Hazen—I didn't give any excuse and I don't propose to give any.
Mr. Pugsley said that the information was necessary to the discussion and the attitude of the minister was an outrage.

Mr. Hazen—I have given my answer and I will give no other.
Mr. Pugsley—The minister has not given an answer.

Mr. Hazen rose to a point of order and J. R. Armstrong, of East Lan-ton, who was in the chair, ruled that

ANOTHER REPORT OF ATLIN STRIKE

Two Thousand Claims Staked at Silver Creek and Adjacent Parts

Vancouver, March 5.—News has come down from Atlin of the new strike that has caused a stampede on Silver creek and adjacent creeks. According to the dispatch which was sent down to a friend in Vancouver last night by Kershaw, Wong, Sande and James, of Atlin, Indians discovered the creek last fall and became enthusiastic over the showing. They staked about two hundred claims in the vicinity where good, coarse gold had been found, without practically any careful prospecting.

Kenneth McLaren, George Conroy and Charles McCulloch, with other reliable miners, have just returned to Atlin from a visit to the creeks and they speak very highly regarding the clean-ups that are being made. They are all preparing to go back with large outfits.

Dikeman, the discoverer of the Iditarod, has purchased several of the claims staked by the Indians, has two men on Silver creek working for him and has just started in himself. The only good winter route to the new discovery is via Atlin, according to the message which came down last night. From that city to Silver creek there is said to be a good trail.

FIREWORKS FIGURES OF TWO EXECUTIVES

WASHINGTON HOLDS NIGHT CELEBRATION

Court of Honor Central Illumination Point of Historical American Subjects

Washington, March 5.—Aerial fireworks, with the sweeping, wide-flung rays of many searchlights revealing the outlines of the white dome of the Capitol and other historic buildings, made Washington a scene of beauty and brilliancy in the closing inauguration festivities of last night.

Never, it is said, has so brilliant a display of fireworks or an illumination of such magnitude been attempted. Large searchlights threw their rays along the avenues and on public buildings, while at the Monument grounds the crashing of thousands of aerial bombs and the flaming light from large set pieces illuminated the sky. But it was not alone a riot of bombs and flashlights. The entire display was significant of the arrival of the new executives, with set pieces showing the president and vice-president and many designs of "Wilson" and "Marshall."

The illumination of the city began shortly after sunset. At once every part of Pennsylvania avenue, from the Capitol to Washington Circle, was ablaze with light. Peace Monument stood out in bold relief and the avenue from end to end was transformed into a fairland of light by hundreds of incandescent lamps spanning the street in graceful arches.

On the roofs of the Senate and House office buildings, a number of powerful electric searchlights played upon the dome of the Capitol, making the Statue of Liberty that crowns it stand out as of a living figure. Peace Monument, originally intended for a fountain, was to-night performing that function for the first time since the last inaugural. Upon its waters were thrown, by several boxlights, different colored rays weirdly beautiful.

The Court of Honor, in front of the White House, was a central point of illumination to-night, as it had been of activity during the day, the replica of Jefferson's home at Monticello being the chief feature of the display. Facing the replica a huge spotlight threw its rays on the Jeffersonian mansion, bringing its portico, columns and colonial outline into brilliant relief against the background of cedar trees, their branches studded with countless miniature electric bulbs giving the effect of thousands of fireflies winging their way through the native pines which surround Monticello.

From the time the illuminations began thousands poured through Pennsylvania avenue to witness the brilliant spectacle. But when the aerial pyrotechnic display started two hours later the great mass of humanity turned its attention to the Monument grounds. The display opened with a flash which gave place to a bomb signal immediately a host of small balloons and airships floated gracefully across the sky, made brilliant by the ascent of many rockets and other illuminating pieces.

Following the opening flash and bomb came the salute of 101 guns fired from steel mortars. Then came a brilliant illumination of the White House grounds and the Monument grounds through the ascent of bombs that, upon explosion, released fires that burned the national colors. The effect of this upon the surrounding white buildings and the Washington monument was spectacular.

At intervals, pieces were shown that reflected against the sky the red, white and blue of the national flag, either in the form of a shield or the flag itself. The crowning effect of the display was the "Transformation Device," which began with a mammoth bouquet of roses that changed into an immense American flag and then transformed into the portraits of President Wilson and Vice-President Marshall. This was by far the most elaborate piece of the entire evening and the largest aerial set piece ever attempted. It was said. The device covered more than 2,000 square feet of space.

Just before this piece was released gigantic bombs ascended, and when they reached a great height exploded and formed in immense letters the words, "Wilson" and "Marshall." The last piece was entitled "Good Night" and "Fou de Jol," which brought the display to a close.

At midnight the streets slowly lapsed into darkness. The searchlights winked one after the other and the white dome of the Capitol merged into the darkness from which it had stood out with such conspicuous brilliancy only a moment before. The slender shaft of the Washington monument disappeared suddenly. The Peace monument ceased its splashing and its fountain of light went out. Pennsylvania avenue merged into its usual dimly-lighted self. The illumination and the fireworks were at an end.

WESTERN FUEL CASES IN COURT ON MONDAY

San Francisco, Cal., March 5.—Eight officials of the Western Fuel Company of San Francisco who were recently indicted by the federal grand jury on charges of having defrauded the government out of more than $400,000 in duty rebates on coal shipments during the last ten years, will appear formally next Monday in the United States District Court to answer the charges against them. Their cases were continued on the calendar to-day until March 31 to be set for trial.

CONSTABLE WESTAWAY KILLED BY BURGLAR

Union Bay Grocery Store Scene of Murder and Capture of Gunman

Nanaimo, B. C., March 5.—Special Provincial Constable Westaway was shot and instantly killed at Union Bay yesterday by a notorious character, Henry Ferguson, known as "The Flying Dutchman," while the latter was in the act of robbing Fraser & Bishop's grocery store at that point.

Special Constables Ross and Westaway noticed a launch approaching the shore with three men aboard whose actions appeared suspicious. Immediately upon landing the three men made for Fraser & Bishop's store, and while two of the number remained on guard the third entered the premises. Their actions were watched by the constables, who entered the store immediately after the robber who, upon finding himself trapped, pulled a 45-Caliber revolver and opened fire, the bullet grazing Ross' shoulder and entering Westaway's body on the right side, causing instant death. Ross at once grappled with the burglar, and succeeded in overpowering and placing him under arrest.

Upon the appearance of the constables the two men on guard made their escape into the woods. Their launch, the Spray, has been seized by the police.

AMERICAN TROOPS IN MEXICAN SKIRMISHES

Shots Exchanged Across the Arizona Border Line Near Douglas Yesterday

Douglas, Ariz., March 5.—A second skirmish occurred yesterday between the Ninth Cavalry troops and Mexican federal soldiers for Agua Prieta, across the international border, one and one-half miles southeast of Douglas. Mexicans to the number of fifty fired on the border patrol at a distance of 250 yards.

In answer to a hurry call, troops "E" and "F" and a machine gun platoon of the Ninth Cavalry were sent to the place where the Mexicans had fired on the patrol squad. A rapid-fire was put into immediate operation, in addition to a hot fire from the negro cavalrymen's rifles.

The Mexican soldiers returned the fire with spirit, but soon retreated to a line of trenches dug during the Madero revolution. When they reached the trenches the firing ceased. Whether any Mexicans were killed or wounded is not known. None of the American troopers were hurt.

WOULD ESTABLISH NEW BRITISH PRESS SERVICE

London, March 5.—The Canadian chamber of commerce in London is about to institute enquiries concerning the possibility of establishing a wholly British news service from England to Canada. The idea is that possibly such a service might stamp out fanciful inventions regarding royalty and British institutions generally which, it is said, are repeated from America into the smaller Canadian newspapers.

INJURED IN COLLISION.

Winnipeg, March 5.—As a result of a collision yesterday from some unknown cause of two yard engines in the C. P. R. northwest yards here, William Gooch, engineer, Winnipeg, was badly injured. He was taken to St. Boniface hospital, where one foot was amputated, and he is reported to be in serious condition. The other members of the crews were not injured.

CHILDREN VISIT WARSHIP.

London, March 5.—Thousands of school children were given a free fun over the battle-cruiser New Zealand yesterday, cables the Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Telegraph. Captain Halsey, R. ## NAVAL DEBATE CONTINUED ALL NIGHT BY LIBERAL MEMBERS Opposition Puts Up Marcell, Boyer, Turriff, Robb, Kyle, McCraney, Sinclair, Buchanan and Turgeon, the latter Still Having the Floor at 2.45 a. m.

Ottawa, March 5.—The naval debate in the House of Commons continued throughout the night until an early hour this morning, when the Liberals still held the floor determined in their platform to force the government to an election, holding that the government policy forms a grave departure, and that it is a matter of duty to oppose the measure to the utmost limits of their power. The Liberal fight is well organized, being considered the best that has ever been undertaken in the House of Commons.

The leader of the opposition, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, was seen little in the House yesterday, and Premier Borden did not remain in his seat long. Both leaders were in and out, however, several times during the day, and Sir Wilfrid was never far from the scene of action and debate. There were generally two ministers and about thirty members in the House on the government side throughout the night, and of the opposition there were twenty members continually present.

The Liberals yesterday put forward Messrs. Marcell, Boyer, Turriff, Robb, Kyle, McCraney, Sinclair, Buchanan and Turgeon, who maintained the debate until early this morning. Mr. Boyer, who represents Vaudreuil, spoke in support of the Laurier naval policy. Mr. Turriff, member for East Assiniboia, the following speaker was frequently interrupted, and a number of warm interchanges occurred. Mr. Turriff said that he did not object to the spending of $25,000,000 for the purpose of naval defence. It was a large sum, but was not too large for a country like Canada. The government's plan of paying tribute and hiring Englishmen to do our fighting was not one to increase the self-respect of the Canadians. It was not a good idea to give the young men who are growing up, the impression that we are a people who lack the courage to fight for themselves. Canadians could be depended upon to do their own fighting.

"If they were all like the honorable gentleman who is speaking, I would not trust them," remarked Hon. Sam Hughes. The honorable gentleman who has just interrupted is one of those who do their fighting with pen or mouth. With the assistance of one he can take generals into captivity and cause the surrender of hundreds of thousands of others," retorted Mr. Turriff. Major Currie, who was at the time occupying the chair, told Mr. Turriff that he must confine his remarks to the matter under discussion. "I quite agree with you," said Mr. Turriff, "but you must remember that I was drawn into making that statement by the interruption of the honorable member. I am prepared to take my part in this fight, for one day, one week, one month, or six months, with perfect good nature. I agree with the chairman, and he is a good chairman, that the rules of debate should be observed."

A few minutes later, in reply to some further interruptions, Mr. Turriff said: "If the honorable gentleman will not interrupt me I hope to get through before 6 o'clock."

The hands of the clock at the time were pointed to four, and Mr. Turriff's promise of brevity in his remarks was greeted with laughter.

At 4:10, Major Currie, who had been acting as chairman for three hours, was relieved by W. F. Nickle of Kingston. A few minutes later Sir Wilfrid Laurier made his first appearance in the House since the early morning hours, and was greeted by handclapping on the part of his followers.

J. A. Robb, member for Huntingdon (Liberal), said the government should be condemned for trying to put through the House by force a bill having to do with a question on which both sides were unanimous in 1902. He criticized the bill itself as tending to militarism and as adopting a course foreign to the traditions of Canadians, in that it proposed to hire other people to bear the brunt of defence which Canadians should undertake themselves.

G. Kyle, of Richmond, N. S., continued to speak until 6 o'clock, when the House automatically adjourned until 8, this being the usual two-hour recess for dinner.

When the speaker left the chair the Liberals sang "O Canada."

Mr. McCraney, Liberal member for Saskatoon, was heard for the first time in connection with the naval discussion in the evening. He urged that the proposals of the government were of such vital importance that they should not be settled by the vote of parliament, but by an appeal to the people.

When J. H. Sinclair, of Guysboro, rose to continue the debate, Gerald White, Conservative member for North Renfrew, said: "We heard you last night."

"And you will hear him again," remarked Hon. Dr. Beland, who was at the time leading the opposition.

Mr. Sinclair proceeded to speak at considerable length. He said that no matter what the cost, the navy should be built in Canada and a shipbuilding industry started. The country would not amount to anything until it decided to adopt this course.

W. Buchanan, of Medicine Hat, commenced to speak shortly after 1 o'clock this morning.

After the people in Western Canada plans, he said, the creation of a shipbuilding industry, more particularly on the Pacific coast, it would mean a great deal. The employment of thousands of workmen in such an industry in British Columbia would create a large addition to the home market, and the west is in need of home markets, both at home and abroad. He said that there is in Alberta a strong sentiment in favor of the construction of a Canadian navy.

He quoted from the London Daily Mail an article descriptive of what Australia is doing in the way of naval construction. He said that it was one of the possible arguments that could be advanced for the construction of a Canadian navy. In the course of time, the article stated, the Australian navy would be quite large enough to deal with any invading squadron.

That, said Mr. Buchanan, was the kind of navy Canada should have. The Daily Mail article said that in Australia the fear had been expressed that Australians would not take to the sea. At the present, however, more Australians are offering for cadets than are required.

Mr. Buchanan proceeded to dilate on the advantages which have accrued to Australia by the establishment of a navy. "Can you tell us what the Australian navy will cost?" asked Mr. Cockshutt, of Brantford. "No, I cannot," said Mr. Buchanan, "but whatever the cost, the people of Australia are patriotic enough to pay it. The people of Alberta are in favor of making the necessary expenditure for the construction of a Canadian navy. I am not afraid to advocate such a policy in Alberta."

Mr. Buchanan expressed the conviction that the construction of a Canadian navy would do more to cultivate a patriotic spirit than a contribution. The policy proposed by the government would quite likely have an opposite effect.

At 2:45 the situation in the House was unchanged, with O. Turgeon, of Gloucester, carrying on the discussion on the Liberal side.

SUGGEST TWO PARTIES AT SEPTEMBER MEETING

London, March 5.—Regarding the proposed meeting of the Institute of British Journalists in Canada next September, inquiries show that while the scheme hung fire for some time it is not likely that a successful gathering will result. The present idea is to have two parties, one for those who can stay only for the week of the actual sessions of the Institute and the other for the more fortunate scribes who have leisure to take an extended holiday. The Institute claim that the gathering ought to include the rank and file of members so that Canada may benefit from the visit of the men who will actually write about it on their return home.

MOVES AN AMENDMENT TO GRAND TRUNK BILL

Senator Powell Not Satisfied but Would Not Impair Great Object

Ottawa, March 5.—In the Upper House yesterday Senator Choquette called the attention of the government to a statement in the Quebec Chronicle that the site of the Quebec drydock had been located at St. Joseph de Levis, with the entrance fronting on the Island of Orleans. He asked if the statement was true.

Senator Loughheed said: "I said the government would bring down an answer to the question at an early date, and that is the best answer I can give."

Sir George Ross opposed the government bills from the Commons respecting the Grand Trunk Pacific railroad and the Intercolonial, and said he had no desire to be factious. The G. T. P. bill proposed to place the right to extend the line for construction in the hands of the government, which was

by the bill, given authority to specify the time of completion. Parliament always held authority to extend charters, and so far as he could recall had never permitted that authority to pass from its hands. He stated that he would move to amend the bill, striking out the clause empowering the government to specify when the road should be completed and substitute a provision to have parliament specify the time.

Hon. Mr. Loughheed stated that in 1911 parliament had given the government authority to amend the time for completion of the prairie and mountain sections. Under the law of that session the time had been extended and the road had been almost completed. A little more time only was required, and this bill had the approval of the railway company, and was only to confirm and extend previous action by parliament. It was not a new precedent. In view of the facts, the government could not accept the proposed amendment. The government was financially interested in the bill through its relations with the company, and both were interested in seeing the bill carried through, so that the finance operations of the company could be carried out in the British money market.

Sir George Ross said he favored the extension of the road, but wanted the extension granted by parliament.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell said that in this case the government was virtually building the road through its guarantee, therefore it was more interested in speedy completion than in the case of an ordinary bill. There was no danger that the government would grade the road, as had been suggested by Sir George Ross. The bill gave it sent was given five minutes after wards. Senator Cloran said in view of this the government had no intention to do so. Its interest in the speedy completion of the road was very great. The only purpose was to allow the G. T. P. to obtain money on its bonds as quickly as possible. Senator Cloran said he had looked up the bill of 1911 and found it had been rushed through in a moment just before the Christmas adjournment. The first, second and third readings of the bill were carried out in five minutes under suspension of the rules moved by Senator Watson, and the royal assent and reported progress of the bill.

PEOPLE SHOULD DECIDE.

The opposition at Ottawa seems determined to prevent the government's naval bill from becoming law until the verdict of the people has been obtained. Two years ago the then opposition forced the administration of Sir Wilfrid Laurier to dissolve parliament in order that the voice of the electors could be heard in regard to the reciprocity agreement. The House of Commons rang with the opposition challenge, "let your mandate from the people," and it exercised its constitutional power to prevent the passage of the bill by organized obstruction. The present opposition on an even graver question now demands that the government ascertain the will of the people in a similar manner. The far-reaching importance of the subject, and its constitutional and national aspects, make such a course highly desirable. Mr. Borden last fall stated in Montreal that if the House did not pass the bill he would dissolve parliament and go to the country. A number of his own supporters have publicly urged him to do this. Mr. Monk in his letter of resignation says that Mr. Borden is pledged to take such action. It could quickly and easily be done. The opposition would facilitate the passage of sufficient supply for the immediate needs of the country.

An appeal to the country would enable the electors to decide as to the merits of the two policies advocated in parliament. There could be no confusion as to the issue. The government proposal is that a sum of $35,000,000 be appropriated for three ships to be presented to the Admiralty, to be manned and maintained at the expense of Great Britain. The opposition policy provides for two fleet units, one on the Pacific and one on the Atlantic, and the development of a Canadian naval organization with warship construction in Canadian waters. Australia has adopted this policy with the most promising prospects. In view of the fact that the people have to pay the bill for whichever policy is adopted, should they not be given an opportunity of stating which one they prefer? It would settle a momentous question once and for all. The reciprocity agreement provided for the reduction of taxation, not for its increase. The two naval proposals would impose additional burdens on the people, the difference being that in the case of the government policy the taxpayers would be paying for something over which they would have no control, while under the opposition policy they would have entire control. Besides, there is an even graver issue at stake, a constitutional issue. If we vote money for purposes concerning which we have nothing to say, we are taking a step backward to where we stood seventy years ago. Interpret it as you will, it means that and nothing less. Discussing the larger constitutional question, Sir Charles Lucas, for many years head of the dominions department of the Colonial Office, in a recent book says:

"The path obviously lies in a continuance of the constructive policy of which Lord Durham was the pioneer, and which has so far proved successful. There is no other alternative. We have gone too far in one direction to think of turning back; we have created nations and cannot uncreate them."

For our part, we believe the situation is critical. If Mr. Borden's policy is adopted, it means that there will be no Canadian naval organization. Mr. Pettit, Postmaster-General, has made this clear in his speeches in Quebec. The Canadian naval law, he says, is to be repealed and we are only giving thirty-five million dollars so as to dispose of the question of Canadian participation in the defense of the Empire. The Montreal Star, owned by Sir Hugh Graham, whose editor went to England last summer in connection with the naval negotiations, emphatically states that under the government's proposal there would be no Canadian organization, and stigmatizes the Australian policy as "futile." It scouts the stationing of ships on the Pacific Coast and declares that they might as well "send ships to the moon." We challenge contradiction when we state that Mr. Borden has unequivocally announced it is his opinion that an effective organization could not be built up in Canada within twenty-five years or perhaps half a century.

The question vitally affects this province. We have vast interests on our coast demanding protection. The Premier of the province, the Navy League and papers of both political parties have frequently drawn attention to our defenceless condition. We are endeavoring to enforce an immigration policy which is devised to keep this a white country. Must we expect aid from the Australian fleet or the British China squadron? How much better it would be if all the dominions on the Pacific joined with the British China fleet in forming a formidable force to protect the coasts of the British dominions washed by these waters! But there is an economic aspect of the question which also concerns this province. We require permanent industries; these centres of industrial activity. These would be created as a cogwheel of the organization of a Canadian naval force. We would see the development of an extensive shipbuilding industry in our waters which would give us a pre-eminent status among the maritime nations who will soon be fighting for the trade supremacy of this great ocean. The Prime Minister of Australia recently uttered a striking expression in discussing the defence problem. "What would be our answer to a threat of war?" he asked. "It would be the clang of five thousand hammers on the anvils of our country."

So should it be with Canada. The people should be given an opportunity to decide this question and it should be decided at once.

NOT DR. BLONDIN.

The Montreal Star is authority for the report, which it declares to be authentic, that Hon. L. P. Pelletier, postmaster-general, is to resign in the near future and that his successor will be Dr. Blondin, deputy speaker of the House of Commons. It must have been a severe shock to Canadians when the three Nationalists were taken into Mr. Borden's cabinet and Dr. Blondin was made deputy speaker, but it would be a staggering blow if the latter were elevated to a portfolio. We will show our readers why.

On October 29, 1910, during a by-election in Drummond-Arthabaska, Dr. Blondin, according to Le Soleil, made these remarks at a meeting at St. Louis de Blainville:

"The English have never done anything for the French Canadians. We owe them nothing. The French Canadians do not want to bother themselves about what may be said or done in the other provinces on this question of the navy. Those who cut to pieces your fathers on the Plains of Abraham ask you to-day to go and get yourselves killed by them."

Le Devoir, Mr. Bourassa's paper (the organ of the Nationalists), also reports Dr. Blondin as saying:

"You are attempting to intimidate the electorate by shaking the English flag before it and saying that we ought to contribute to the defence, in all places and against all, of this protector of our constitutional liberties, but we cannot be made to forget that it was necessary to put holes in this flag with bullets to breathe the air of liberty."

This is the man Mr. Borden made deputy speaker of the House of Commons. If an attempt is made to give him a cabinet position all Canada should protest against it.

BETTER TERMS.

A commission representing the federal and British Columbia governments will soon be investigating the claims of the local administration for special treatment in the matter of subsidies from the national exchequer. It will be contended that the physical conditions existing in this province entitle it to a more liberal subvention from Ottawa than it has received. It will be pointed out that nature has placed British Columbia in a different position from that of the other provinces and that due consideration should be given to the features which emphasize the distinction.

The Maritime Provinces have also demanded better terms. Manitoba recently received a material increase of subsidy in the form of debt allowance. An agitation has arisen in Ontario for special treatment based upon the difficulty of administering the northern portion of the province now being opened up. No doubt Quebec will point out that the development of Ungava will require a greater outlay than is now available and will send up a distress signal.

Now it is axiomatic that the people of Canada will have to foot the bill in any event. If British Columbia obtains further subsidies from the federal exchequer, the people of the Maritime Provinces, in common with those of the other provinces, must pay for it in additional taxes. We mention the Maritime Provinces because to us it seems almost pathetic that they, whose combined revenues cannot exceed one-half of that of British Columbia, are going to be asked to contribute more money to help the poor forlorn orphan on the Pacific. And if this province is successful in its claim there is no doubt whatever that the federal revenue will be tapped from the other quarters, and this process will continue indefinitely.

But why not demand better terms without having a commission to investigate the matter? We do not mean better terms in cash but in federal works. Let the government promote a shipbuilding industry in British Columbia waters and assist in other lines of industrial activity. In that way the people of the province would immediately benefit. We know what would happen if more money in the shape of subsidies was transferred from the federal strong box to the provincial treasury. The public accounts leave no room for uncertainty on that score. The maximum of benefit would be derived by the few who have been fattening off this province for years; the people would receive the very smallest end.

RAILROAD PROGRESS.

Canada's railroad construction last year amounted to 1,370 miles at a cost of $30,000,000. The programme for the current year provides for 2,700 miles of new track to cost $41,000,000. This is equal to almost a new transcontinental, and yet we take it as a matter of course. The Montreal Herald points out that at this rate it will not be many years before we catch up with the United States. The total mileage in the republic is greater, of course, 235,000 as against 35,000—but our per capita mileage is much larger. It is certainly remarkable that in the last two years sufficient track was laid in Canada to span the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

The advocates of "votes for women" may burn down pavilions in public parks, blow up residences of ministers, and generally behave in a somewhat inconsiderate manner, but when they threaten to destroy the greens on golf courses, that is manifestly the last straw, and to mix things up a little, "the worm will turn." A news dispatch says: "Golf committees have quietly intimated that any woman caught destroying greens will not be handed over to the police but summarily spanked."

Toronto Star: The Borden Government has dropped everything to fit out an expedition under Explorer Stefansson, who will go north to see if he can again get in touch with the Blonde Eskimos. If he succeeds, Hon. George E. Foster will probably follow after to enter into a reciprocity agreement with them.

If the Suffragettes should in the course of time be admitted to full citizenship, with eligibility to seats in parliaments and all deliberative bodies, we almost tremble for the future if they make speeches corresponding in length to the letters some of them expect to have printed in newspapers.

PROSPERITY OF THE TRUSTS.

From the Chicago Tribune. Discussing the high cost of living, Henry S. Oliphant, a Des Moines banker, said frankly at a banquet: "The price of a commodity is what it will bring, and when monopoly is once secured, that price mounts pretty high. Look at oil. Look at meat. "But that all spells prosperity. I said to a trust magnate the other day: "I suppose your wife goes to church to see what other women are wearing?" "She used to," he replied, "in the foolish old days of competition; but she now goes to let the other women see what she is wearing."

HONEST ABE.

(Philadelphia Evening Telegraph) I. Honest Abe was a simple man, A simple man and rare. His mind was a true divining rod, He marched straight on, and he marched with God. Loving the soil on which he trod, And mankind everywhere.

II. Honest Abe was a loyal man, A loyal man and true. His eyes shone bright with righteous light, He marched straight on, in the darkest night. Cheering the weak with his words of might, Giving each one his due.

III. Honest Abe was a noble man, A man of the helping hand. His soul was filled with Freedom's song, It sounded clear as he marched along. Seeking the way to right a wrong, Heavy upon the land.

IV. And Honest Abe was a Working Man, Born of a lowly name. By the cabin door that gave him birth He learned the labor of the earth. While he marched straight on to take his worth Into the halls of fame.

HOW A CASE WAS WON.

It seems that once in England a Chicagoan had occasion to go to law with an English firm, and went to a good English solicitor to conduct his case for him. The solicitor told him that he thought he would probably win his case, but that much depended upon who the judge was, and in what mood he might be. "Oh," said the American, "I should say, then, that a present to the judge would be about the size of it."

Special Showing of Hand-Tailored Costumes

Strictly Hand-Tailored Costumes at Moderate Prices

THE new styles are so distinctive, and look so different to the ordinary costumes that they are becoming even more popular than last year. Every garment is strictly hand-tailored and measures well up to the standard of quality that you would expect only from a high-grade costume tailor, but we don't ask the excessive price that has hitherto made the plain-tailored garments luxurious for the rich only. There is nothing that we can say in this advertisement that will be so convincing of the values that they represent as one glance at the goods themselves.

Navy blue serge and various mixtures are the chief materials. Made in latest entaway and square-cut styles, with satin linings. All sizes are to be had, and the woman who wishes a costume that will give her entire satisfaction and a full season's wear, will do well in selecting one of these garments. ### ESTEVEAN THE BEST TENDER NOW AFLOAT

Steamer is Well Equipped for Lighthouse Work in British Columbia Waters

HAS WINCHES CAPABLE OF LIFTING 30 TONS

Clean Deck Space of 90 Feet and Can Stow Four of Largest Buoys Now in Service

The new steamer Estevan, the arrival of which from Collingwood, Ont., was announced in yesterday's Times, is one of the finest lighthouse tenders ever constructed. Besides being able to reel off close to 14 knots an hour, she is twin-screw which will add her materially in making the treacherous landings at some of the lighthouses, and is magnificently fitted out for the handling of the largest buoys with the greatest ease. The accommodation for the officers and crew is of the best and the extra staterooms provided for travelling inspectors and officials are as elaborately fitted as those on the big ferry steamers.

The most noticeable feature about the Estevan is the fact that she has 90-foot clean stretch of deck for the handling of the buoys. From the break of the poop to the break of the after accommodation there is not one obstruction in the deck, with the exception of a fair-sized hatch, the combings of which, however, extend only a few inches above the deck. The foremost is very large and has been built of heavy steel. At the foot of this mast is the great boom, about 60 feet in length. It is also built of steel and is reinforced in many places. The two powerful winches which will lift the buoys are bolted down on the forecastle head. This apparatus will be capable of lifting 30 tons, and will easily take care of the largest aids to navigation to be established here for some time.

Has Workshops Aboard. Another innovation is the two workshops, completely equipped for blacksmith and carpenter work, one being located forward on the main deck and the other on the lower of the two upper steel decks. The vessel is also fitted with refrigerating chambers, a large dynamo plant and the latest type of wireless apparatus, a 1-2 kilowatt machine.

The quarters for the crew in the forecastle are about the best on any coasting boat. The interior work on the Estevan has been carried out in mahogany and maple. The dining room, which is quite roomy and comfortable, has been fitted out with maple, while the companionways, staterooms, officers' quarters, and sitting room are done in mahogany.

As an indication of the adaptability of the Estevan as a lighthouse tender, the superintendent of lighthouses for Chile, Mr. Clarkson, and the Admiral of the Chilean fleet, announced after being entertained aboard by Capt. Lindgren at Punta Arenas that they would try and induce their government to provide a steamer similar to the Estevan for service in the Strait of Magellan. They were greatly pleased with the vessel.

COAST TOWNS ARE AGAIN AWAKENING

Capt. Turner, of Steamer Camosun, Reports Business Picking Up Once Again

SURVEYORS ARE MAKING READY FOR YEAR'S WORK

Going North to Start Out From Bella Coola—Canneries Prepare for Fishing

All British Columbia coast towns are now actively preparing for the spring and summer rush of business. Capt. Dickson, master of the Union steamer Camosun, which was in port this morning, says that many people are now making their way from Victoria and Vancouver to different points along the coast as far north as Bella Coola. Much freight is also commencing to move northward, and a congestion of traffic is expected before long. Capt. Turner says that many surveying parties are now booking passages to Bella Coola, which is one of the centres for men of this profession. From Bella Coola they make their way into the interior of the province and remain all summer staking land. When the snow begins to fall in the winter they retreat to Bella Coola, and come south to Victoria and Vancouver.

Supplies for Canneries. Although the canneries will not commence operations for a few months

PLAN WEEKLY RUN TO Q. C. ISLANDS

Prince Albert and Prince John to Connect Victoria With Towns on Northern Isles

INAUGURATING SERVICE APRIL 1 SAYS MANAGER

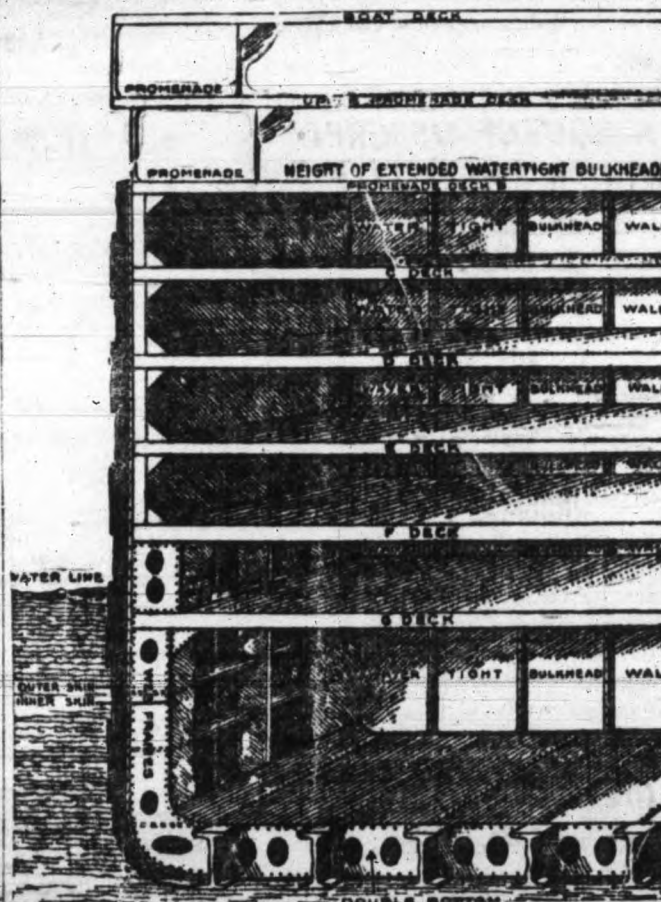

Capt. Nicholson, of G. T. P., Now Preparing Splendid Schedule

April 1 will not only see the commencement of the semi-weekly service of the G. T. P. between this port and Prince Rupert, but will also witness the inauguration of a weekly run out of this port to the Queen Charlotte Islands. Capt. C. H. Nicholson, manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific Steamship Company, announced this morning that a schedule is now being drawn up for the new field of business into which the company is to enter.

The two steamers Prince John, Capt. Wearmouth, and Prince Albert, Capt. Morehouse, are to maintain the weekly service out of Victoria to the Queen Charlottes. From this port they will proceed to Vancouver and call at different ports on the coast as far north as Ocean Falls. On reaching Milbank Sound the steamers will head out for the inside passage and make for Skidegate. From that port they will steam for other towns on the islands and proceed to Prince Rupert. On the return trip to Victoria the vessels will sail from Rupert for Masset and after-wards Milbank Sound will call at the different ports south of Ocean Falls.

Gives Islands' People Benefit. Formerly the people on the islands were served only with a service out of Prince Rupert, which has been operated by the G. T. P. This will give the islands direct communication with Victoria and Vancouver and will also give them good connection with Prince Rupert.

TWO SKINS OF LEVIATHAN OLYMPIC

This cut shows where the inner skin of the mammoth vessel has been built in order to reduce to a minimum the risk of ocean travel. The inner skin has been built from her double bottom to some distance above the waterline. The cut also shows one of the watertight bulkheads which have been built from the double-bottom to deck 'B'.

yet, much tin and other material and supplies for the canning plants are being sent north by the owners. The packing houses are being placed in shape for the resumption of operations, and the prospects are that an early start will be made this year.

When the Camosun steamed north this morning she took out a large number of passengers. She was detained here a short time taking on heavy shipments of freight, including much iron plating, coal oil, gasoline and general merchandise. Hereafter the Camosun will sail from Victoria on Tuesdays instead of Wednesdays. As soon as the steamer Chealakee is again ready for service the Union Steamship Company will change the vessel's agent, and the Venture will return to the Victoria-Bella-Coola route.

The centre girder and the flat plate keel of the new section of the Chealakee has been set in position, and the frames are now being made at the B. C. Marine railway yards.

The G. T. P. has also arranged the schedule of the departure of the Albert and John from Prince Rupert, so that they will connect with the big boats running from Victoria direct to the northern port.

The Prince Albert arrived in port yesterday from the north and is now at the B. C. Marine Railway yards being converted into an oil-burner. A number of alterations are to be made to her passenger accommodation and her Capt. Nicholson says that she will be ready by the first of next month to enter service. The Albert will be able to steam 15 knots with oil-burners. The Prince John will be a coal-burner. Both vessels have large saloon accommodation and special arrangements will be made for handling stowage passengers. They will also be able to carry large cargoes.

TAKES LARGE PARTY OUT FROM VICTORIA

Liner Umatilla Sails South for San Francisco With Full List of Passengers

Some fifty passengers embarked on the Pacific Coast steamship Umatilla, Capt. Reilly, at the outer docks this morning to take passage on the vessel to San Francisco. The vessel did not clear until after 10 o'clock owing to the fact that she was detained loading cargo at Seattle. The local agents had disposed of all their space long before the boat sailed and Seattle was unable to help out the Victoria demand. All the staterooms on the Sound list had been snatched up early. There was not a vacant berth aboard the Umatilla when she pulled out for the south this morning.

No newly married couples joined the steamship at this port and nothing of interest marked her departure. There were several parties who are on their honeymoon trip aboard, having joined the vessel at Seattle.

Some of the Passengers. Among the passengers who boarded the Umatilla at this port were the following: L. Sperry, J. P. Macie, Miss Mary Powers, Miss C. W. Powers, E. Wall, J. B. Paynt, Miss J. Kornell, Mrs. M. A. Tuffy, Mrs. M. Lovejoy, R. Lovejoy, Mrs. H. Myster, Mrs. C. Fiebig, Miss L. Coffey, Wm. Bass and J. Bass. The local agents of the line have been advised that the steamship City of Puebla, Capt. Harris, sailed from San Francisco on time yesterday, and she is expected to dock at Victoria on Thursday night. She is bringing north 250 tons of general freight for this port, including 88 tons of cement and 25 tons of perishable goods for Vancouver. The Puebla also has many passengers aboard, travel northbound having shown a distinct increase on the past few trips.

OVERDUE BARQUE ACME HAS AT LAST REACHED SOUND

Seattle, March 5.—Great anxiety felt for the safety of the American barque Acme, which has been overdue on her voyage from Baltimore for Seattle, was set at rest Monday night when the vessel hove in sight off Cape Flattery and was taken in tow by the tug Lorn.

The Acme is expected to reach here to-day, when she will begin discharging 5,500 tons of blacksmith coal, specially selected in Baltimore for the Cumberland Coal Company of Seattle. Though details of the passage will not be known until Capt. J. G. Park brings his craft into Port Townsend, it has been learned that the Acme has had a hard voyage from Baltimore, where she started for this port 258 days ago. Owing to rough weather the vessel was compelled to run for Montevideo September 5, where she was detained repairing and overhauling until November 6. Even at that her voyage of 118 days from Montevideo has been unusually protracted.

The Acme is one of the last remaining vessels of the once powerful Standard Oil sailing fleet. After arrival here she will be taken over by the Alaska Packers' Association, which has purchased her from the Rockefeller interests. The vessel will be prepared to go into the salmon industry in Alaska, joining the former Standard Oil ships Atlas and Acme in that business.

RIPS AWAY SIDE OF BARQUENTINE

San Francisco, Cal., March 5.—Entering the harbor in a dense fog early to-day the little steamer Port Bragg from Fort Bragg, Mendocino county, collided with the barquentine James Tuft in the cove way at the port entrance. The sailing vessel was badly damaged on the starboard side, the steamer's port anchor tearing away a portion of the vessel's side from rail to water line.

The wife of Captain Friedberg, of the James Tuft, carrying a babe in arms, was lowered over the side of the damaged ship in a lifeboat and rowed ashore.

HANG UP THE RECEIVER

When your telephone is not in use the receiver should always be left on the hook. If this is not done, the operator obtaining no response to "Number, please?" will report trouble on your line. During the time your receiver is down your line is reported out of order to persons calling your number, and while the necessary tests are being made, difficulty may unavoidably be experienced in obtaining an answer from Central.

Upon a party line one receiver left down will prevent all stations on that line from obtaining service. In Victoria approximately fifty cases of "receivers off" are found daily.

This is a point in the giving of a good service where co-operation is essential.

Please keep the receiver on the hook when your telephone is not in use.

PIER ISLAND HOTEL BURNED TO GROUND

Building Near Sidney Just Ready for Occupation Destroyed—Small Insurance

Pier Island hotel, within a few days of completion, was completely destroyed by fire yesterday. The total loss was about $20,000, and only a small amount of insurance was carried.

The hotel, which was being erected by some Victoria men to cater to tourist trade, was two and a half miles from Sidney. The building was practically completed and would have been occupied by the end of this week.

The origin of the fire is unknown. The watchman was in Sidney purchasing provisions when it broke out and by the time he returned no fire fighting apparatus, if there had been any, could have saved the structure.

The ward for the smaller children is to be finished within the next few days, and it is expected will be occupied during the present month.

The treasurer's statement was satisfactory, and bills amounting to $68.92 were passed. Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. Sherwood were appointed visitors for March.

PASSING SHOW

Durban Pictures.

This city is now having the opportunity of seeing the Durban pictures in kinemacolor. They are to be shown at the Victoria theatre this and to-morrow evenings. The views are accompanied by appropriate music and effects and are explained in an explanatory lecture. The series, which has caused wide comment, includes views of the Royal arrival and visit to Bombay; the state garden party; the Durban ceremonial at Delhi plain; the princes of India paying homage to the King-Emperor, wearing famous jewels of untold wealth, and the review by the King-Emperor of fifty thousand troops.

Empress Theatre.

The bill is headed by Nat Carr, impersonator of Jewish characters, who comes in a playlet, "The End of the World." He has the assistance of Miss Anita Allen and Frederick Galvin. Miss Hilda Gylden, who has a good voice, is a singer of rag-time songs. Wallace Galvin is a neat worker of card tricks and general sleight-of-hand. Knapp and Coralla are to be seen in a gymnastic turn, while one of the two clowns supplies humor. The musical end of the show is in the hands of the Filipino Four, who come on in native attire and with their native stringed instruments, on which they render some of the airs familiar in the Philippine Islands as well as a few American songs. The pictures shown on the Empresscope are up to standard.

Majestic Theatre.

"Sally's Romance" is a tale of the simplicity of a country girl who believed that the friendly interest of an artist was real love. An unfortunate interpretation of a word—engagement, referring to a sitting—induced the girl to set out for the city to find her supposed lover. The real lover followed her and brought her back home. The plight of the girl, locked in a big chest which, though the house is burning, the distracted, drunken, father is unable to open, is exciting. "A True Friend" is a two-reel special masterpiece. "Trap to Catch a Burglar." A man gets caught by a Suffragette's inventive genius. Bunny, Miss Finch and Kate Price are in this amusing film.

VICTORIA SEVEN BEATEN IN GRUELLING STRUGGLE MILLIONAIRES UNCOVER SEASON'S HOCKEY SURPRISE

Victors Smothered Senators With Their Whirlwind Speed—Local Forward Line Never Got Going—Goal-Tends Star in Cyclonic Battle at Arena Last Night—Score 5 to 4

With the Coast championship in their grasp, Victoria's Senatorial septette slipped up on a sure thing at the arena last night and were beaten 5 to 4 in the game that would have given the locals the P. C. H. A. hockey title for this season, had they emerged with the long end of the score. Vancouver now has a chance for the championship, providing Victoria loses the remaining two games yet to be played, with the Millionaires turning in a win every time they take the ice. The defeat of the league-leaders was the biggest surprise that has been sprung in the Coast circuit this year, Victoria being considered unbeatable upon their home ice. Little money was wagered on the result, Vancouver bettors steering clear of the Capital City aggregation.

Result a Surprise.

Of the forty-two hundred fans who witnessed the game, there was not a soul but who looked for a Victoria win. Seven victories on home ice this season and two at Vancouver represent a record that tells of the brilliant hockey that has placed Victoria at the top of the Coast League. The set-back that the team received last night, coming at a time when everything had been staged for a triumphal windup, was a rude jolt to the dreams of the local fans and the immense crowd that had turned out to greet the new champions will have to wait for a week or so before they can realize their ambition. The game was not as spectacular as previous struggles at the arena and the hockey at times was ragged, but Vancouver, playing as men possessed, provided plenty of fireworks, their work in the second period winning the match for the Wealthy Seven.

Led in First Period.

Victoria started out well and after Vancouver had notched the first goal, on an individual rush by Frank Patrick, the Senators broke through for a goal which was disallowed. Lester Patrick immediately after took a pass from Tommy Dunderdale, and slipped the rubber between Parr's legs. Victoria gave Parr an awful ten minutes, the Vancouver goal-tend saving his team a dozen scores by his grand work in the nets. Skinner Poulin broke a skate and when Jack MacDonald had dropped to even up, Dunderdale took a pass from Rowe and whipped in the goal that put the locals in the lead. The play up to this stage of the game had greatly favored the leaders, Vancouver being unable to resist the oncoming Victoria line. Frank Patrick and Cyclone Taylor averaged up the score at the start of the second session, the pair going from goal to goal, Taylor netting the rubber on a beautiful piece of combination. Victoria again forced the Millionaires back and Parr was called upon to repeat his performance in the nets. MacDonald and Harris contributed the next goal, the former scoring when Harris went around the net and passed it out in front. Kendall grabbed off the third goal of the period when he banged through a rebound when MacDonald shot, in all three goals, Lindsay never had a chance, the Victoria defence having been drawn away.

Ulrich as Lone Hope.

Bobby Rowe pulled down the lead when he scored on a nice pass from Lester Patrick and the teams went into the third period with the Millionaires in the lead. Victoria missed several easy chances at the start of the third stanza, though the locals were forced to play five men to seven, Poulin and Genge being on the fence. Ulrich replaced the latter when his time expired, Manager Patrick taking the lone chance to win out. Frank Patrick claimed a goal, but Umpire Reynolds said the puck did not enter the net and when Lester Patrick broke a skate the game was again held up. The local flyer re-appeared, wearing a pair of skates, but was handicapped from that on, being unable to get going on the old time favorites. Harris scored on a long shot, which Lindsay never saw, the puck going through the defence and into the upper corner of the net. This was the goal that won the game. Taylor took the count when he was accidentally struck over the eye by Dunderdale's stick as the latter fell and Rowe sent the local fans into an uproar when he again took a pass from Lester and netted the disc. This wound up the scoring, though Frank Patrick went through alone and scored a few seconds after the whistle had blown.

Allan Parr Beat Locals.

What team play that was in evidence must be credited to Vancouver. The individual rushes of the Millionaires, however, was the real factor in their win, while Allan Parr's work in the visitors' nets must not be overlooked. He gave a finished display and saved Vancouver a million goals in the first two periods. Victoria had nothing except goal-tend Lindsay. Only one goal was scored on the latter in which Bert had a chance, the rest being batted past him from inches out. His absence, however, was conspicuous by its absence, and the old "pep" in the third period which had copied off so many games was entirely missing. At that, however, it must be remembered that Vancouver won by only a single goal and five scores are not such a big total for any defence to be blamed for. Victoria's combination was very weak, while the locals shot in wild style. The forward line never got going, while the defence failed to carry the puck as they have been doing. It was an off-night and incidentally the poorest showing that the team has made this season. Bobby Rowe was the pick of the line, with Skinner Poulin at his heels. Lester Patrick worked hard but the rest failed to strike their stride.

Millionaires Brilliant.

Vancouver's costly idols appeared to have reached their top form. The Millionaires last night played hockey as never before at the Willows and richly deserved the honors. Frank Patrick, Allan Parr and Cyclone Taylor were the individual stars, the entire team putting up a brilliant brand of Canada's national winter pastime. The team is a grand selection of skaters and they simply smothered Victoria with their speed. Jimmy Gardner and Ed. Oatman were away off in their decisions, their eye sight being indeed poor when it came to judging an off-side pass.

You Can Not Find better furnished rooms and accommodation than at the Kaiserhof.

REMARKED ON THE SIDE

Millionaires Have a Faint Chance.

By their win over the Senators last night, Vancouver's all-stars have a very slim chance of winning the championship of the P. C. H. A. Victoria fans need not be alarmed that their favorites are going to drop the title, after leading the league for such a stretch, for the Millionaires have to win two games with New Westminster on the latter's home ice before they can even tie the Senators for the honors. Vancouver, on last night's play, certainly earned their win over the locals, and even though the referees did hand out a bunch of raw decisions, there is no getting over the fact that the Millionaires were playing the best hockey. Victoria had little to offer and finished like a team that lacked the necessary steam to go the route. The failure of the forwards to check and the inability of the defence to carry the puck accounts for the form reversal, and the Senators will certainly have to inject a little "pep" into their play to win over New Westminster on Friday night.

Wants an All-Star Team Also.

If Manager Frank Patrick, of the Vancouver Club, has his way, the Coast League will have cornered the hockey market the end of this month. The ambitious plan of the Vancouver mogul is to bring out another all-star team and to have this sextette perform against the New Westminster and Vancouver clubs, while the Quebec Club is fighting for the world's championship with Victoria. The dispatch from Toronto that Trustee Foran will allow the Stanley Cup to be played for on any ice makes it possible that the coast fans will have the opportunity of witnessing a battle for the famous hockey mug. Quebec, however, will hardly consent to an invasion of their enemies' territory and a series for the mug that stands for the world's honors. An agreement between the leagues, however, for the exchange of annual visits, might make such a series possible.

McKeehin Cup Game at Vancouver.

Unless Victoria's Rugby representatives can defeat the Terminal City fifteen at Brockton Point next Saturday afternoon, the Vancouver platoon stars will hold the coast championship and McKeehin Cup for another year. The locals are in fine shape for the coming struggle and Captain Heineke reports that the team he will lead on the field is the strongest that has yet represented Victoria in the McKeehin Cup series. The local pack is looked upon as superior in every respect to Vancouver, while the maroon three-quarter line is far ahead of any that has yet been selected. Johnson at full-back looks very safe, and with the Victoria fifteen returned winners in the last clash between these teams at Oak Bay, strong hopes are held out that the Capital City fifteen will win the cup.

WALTER SMALL OUT FOR SEASON.

Walter Small viewed last night's game from a box, but there is no possible chance of getting the veteran back into the game this year. He is able to be around, but is still very weak and the attending physicians state that he could not possibly risk another body check in his present weakened state.

STANLEY CUP SERIES NOW POSSIBLE

Toronto, March 5.—Trustee William Foran, of the Stanley cup board of trustees, announced yesterday that the Quebec club could defend the Stanley cup wherever they pleased with the full permission and sanction of the Stanley cup trustees, provided they defended the trophy on Canadian soil and the competing teams were composed of Canadians. This means that the Ancient Capital will be able to put up the famous trophy as the prize to be fought for when they play Victoria at the coast, and the impression is that the Quebec club will play that series for the Stanley cup.

BOWLING LIST CHANGES WHEN VETERANS ROLL

Toledo, O., March 5.—A general change was made yesterday in the individual and two-man leaders in the American Bowling Congress tournament. In the individual class A. March, of Springfield, Ill., climbed into second place with a mark of 61. George Paliz, of Madison, Wis., tied with Richter, of Chicago, for first place with a total of 64.
In the two-man events, A. Haas and C. Carr, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and H. Hoyer and C. W. Ashley, of Sioux City, Ia., tied for second place, each team with a total of 137. G. Jackson and H. Moore, of Fort Wayne, Ind., went into fourth place with a mark of 120.
A. Haas, of Fort Wayne, went into second place in the all-events class by his consistent work. His total for the nine games is 1,284.
Individual leaders: Spencer, Chicago, 628; Marsh, Springfield, Ill., 631; Wagner, Cincinnati, 648; Howley, Chicago, 646; Paliz, Madison, Wis., 644; Richter, Chicago, 644.
Two-man leaders: Mountain-Carlson, Chicago, 1,255; Haas-Carr, Fort Wayne, 1,247; Hoyer-Ashley, Sioux City, 1,247; Jackson-Moore, Fort Wayne, 1,239; Raddy-Karlsek, Chicago, 1,216; Freund-Kohl, Madison, 1,213.

CRICKET BOOMS COWICHAN CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

Duncan, B. C., March 5.—The annual meeting of the Cowichan Cricket Club was held at the Tzouhalem hotel yesterday afternoon with Ruscombe Porter in the chair and W. A. McAdam as secretary of the meeting. The financial statement showed that the club had cleared all the initial expenses incurred during last season in laying out grounds and building club house, excepting a very small amount. It was proposed to clear this by giving a dance, but the matter was left in the hands of the incoming committee. The following were the officers elected: Col. Hobday, hon. president; J. Hirsch, president; F. H. Maitland-Dougall, C. Phillips-Wolley, R. A. Wicks, Dr. Barcroft, Rev. F. G. Christmas, Capt. Clifton and L. W. Huntington, vice-presidents; E. H. Carr-Hilton, captain; H. B. Hayward, vice-captain; E. H. Carr-Hilton, hon. treasurer. The following committee was elected: E. W. Taylor, H. Lipscomb, Brook-Smith, W. W. Bundock, J. Curguyen and R. E. Barkley.
SUCCESSFUL BOXING SHOW.
On Wednesday evening last more than three hundred men attended the display of boxing and wrestling given by the Duncan Amateur Athletic Club. There were three wrestling and six boxing bouts. The club was organized in December last and has a membership of 40. The old Agricultural hall has been leased and fitted up with gymnastic apparatus and club rooms. A basketball league of four teams has been organized—the Imperials, the City team, the A. O. F. and the Duncan Fire Department teams. A challenge cup is to be given by the Cowichan leader to the winning team, and the final match for this will be played between the A. O. F. team and the City team on Tuesday evening next.

CROWD LEADERS.

Toledo, Ohio, March 4.—Bowling in squads to-day, Haas and Carr, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Hoyer and Ashley, of Sioux City, Iowa, in two-man teams, rolled 1,244 each, tied for second place and crowned the leaders for their respective teams.

QUEBEC LEAVES ON MARCH 17

Eastern Champions, Also All-Star Team Will Play on the Coast
the End of This Month—Postponed Games in Order

Telegrams were received from the Ross brought out the N. H. A. All-Stars last year, and he will be at the head of a picked team again this year if Manager Patrick's plans materialize. There is no doubt that such a series would draw record-breaking crowds in Vancouver. Victoria will be playing to capacity houses against Quebec, so that it would prove a big windup to a most successful hockey season.

Postponed Games.

Until after Friday night's game at New Westminster, nothing will be done with regard to the postponed games. Should the Royals win, however, it will mean the abandonment of the Victoria-All-Star coast team series. Vancouver and Victoria will probably get one of the postponed games, with Westminster getting the third, also an All-Star match with the eastern team under Art Ross.

WE SHOULD WORRY

Victoria still has a margin of two games over Vancouver in the race for the P. C. H. A. title and the Senators look the one best bet for the title, despite last night's reverse. The locals play at New Westminster Friday night and according to Lester Patrick, "will fight every inch of the way." A win will salt away the championship, while a defeat will still leave Victoria with still a margin of one game over the Millionaires. The latter have two postponed games with New Westminster, while Victoria has one game with the Royals that has yet to be played in addition to Friday night's game. Vancouver must win both games from the Salmonbellies, while Victoria can lose both and still tie the Millionaires for the championship.

Messrs. Griffis and MacDonald, of Vancouver, will handle Friday night's game and the locals will leave on Friday morning's boat.

AMERICA CUP CHALLENGES FOR NEXT YEAR

London, March 5.—A challenge by the Royal Ulster Yacht Club for a series of races for the America Cup, to take place in 1914, made on behalf of Sir Thomas Lipton, is on its way to America. It will reach New York on the Oceanic to-day or to-morrow. The challenge is for competition under the old rules.
Sir Thomas Lipton, who has just returned from America, when questioned on the subject to-day, said there was no doubt of acceptance. The New York Yacht Club, he added, has been notified both by the Royal Ulster Yacht Club and Sir Thomas Lipton personally of the dispatched challenge.
Sir Thomas said that he could not give the size of his yacht until the challenge had reached New York. The deed of gift, he said, however, provides for a boat from sixty-five to ninety feet in length.

As to the skipper of his yacht Sir Thomas said: "You know Captain Edward Sycamore has been sailing Shamrock IV."

RUGBY ON SATURDAY.

A friendly game has been arranged between the Welsh Club and the James Bay Club for next Saturday at the Oak Bay grounds. Kick-off, 3.30.
The following Welsh players are selected to play: Tregartha, S. Thomas, Scott, Richmond, Steel, W. Davies, T. Rees, G. Wale, Bayley, Dan Thomas, Honeychurch, Headin, P. Jones, Leason, Wilkie, Richards, Hood, A. Griffiths, Collins, Bert Irish, Monroe.

DISPUTE OVER REFEREE.

New York, March 5.—Choice of a referee for a bout between Packy McFarland and Jack Britton, scheduled for Friday night, probably will be left to the State Athletic Commission.

TERMED PRIZE FIGHT.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 5.—District Court Judge Neale B. Nelson decided yesterday against the boxing promoters in the test case involving Joe Weiling of Chicago and Jack Redmond of Milwaukee, who engaged in a ten-round bout here on January 17.

The men were bound over for trial at the municipal court. The court held that the fact that the announcer said that some other boxer was ready to meet the winner made the event a prize fight.

PROTEST IN AMATEUR HOCKEY.

Maxwell Upheld by Local Hockey League—Black Bros Want Game for Title

According to advices from Vancouver the Rowing Club have protested Maxwell, the Y. M. C. A. goal-tender, declaring the local net guardian ineligible to compete in the Inter-City series because of the fact that he has not played with the Christians in a league fixture. President Mowatt, however, declares that as Maxwell had been released by the Telephone management and signed on by the Y. M. C. A. in plenty of time, the protest will not hold good. The leagues are playing under the rules of their respective organizations and there is no controlling body to which the protest can be directed.

The return game between these teams will take place Saturday afternoon at the Arena.
Allen Cup Challenge.
President Mowatt this morning received a wire from Secretary Northey regarding the local's Allen Cup chances. Informing the local officer that challenges will be considered. It is probable that the V. A. H. A. will send a challenge just as soon as the city series is decided. With regard to the challenge issued by the Black Bros. of Vancouver, President Mowatt stated that this game must be played in Victoria, if at all.

MUST HAVE BANDAGES ON FRIDAY

Efforts are being made by the J. B. A. A. officers to have Chief Langley rescind his order that tape bandages must not be allowed at the local bouts. A wire was received from Chief McIntyre this morning stating that none of the V. A. C. boys will appear unless the bandages are allowed, and in view of the fact that several broken hands have resulted from the lack of proper bandages, it is possible that Chief Langley will allow light cotton wrappings for Friday night.

A dark horse from Duncan has written asking to be placed in the heavy-weight class, and the management are now endeavoring to match him up. The latest entry is said to have shown a lot of class in workouts, and is well thought of by those who have seen him work at Duncan. Tickets for the bouts went on sale this morning at the Victoria theatre. The Portland stable will arrive to-morrow, and Chief McIntyre's bunch on Friday, providing bandages are allowed.

MENARD WINS.

Captures Second Place in Wilkerson Cup Series.

E. Bloomfield captured the handicap skating race at the Arena last night between the first and second periods of the hockey match, defeating Art Menard, the latter falling when he reached the home stretch. Menard conceded a quarter of a lap to the Bloomfield boy, but was unable to overcome that handicap. Menard has scored enough points, however, to win the gold medal awarded to the skater finishing second in the season's summary.

TO HOLD GYM KANA.

WILL NOT ADD TO THE POLICE FORCE

Time Does Not Warrant Additions to Staff and Pay of Victoria Police

The police commissioners met this morning to consider the estimates for the current year, over which they spent some time.

After discussing the subject thoroughly it was decided to lay over for the present the questions of the increase of pay, and the increase in the police force, both of which subjects have been before the public for some little time. The reason is that the financial situation does not warrant additional expenditures. The subject may be taken up later in the year. It is recognized that at the present time the police force, when compared with the population, is the smallest of all cities in the Dominion.

The estimates will require slight revision before the total of the amount required from the rates this year is known. No action will be taken in regard to

HEWITT WILL HANDLE BOUT FIGHT DOPE

Jimmie Hewitt will probably referee the Valse-Bayley bout which is billed to take place at Seattle on March 21. Tom McDonald, of the Washington club, which is handling the bout, was in town yesterday and completed the deal whereby the Canadian champion and Valse will step four rounds. Hewitt will give his answer the latter part of this week.
It is announced that the Dobie-Moore battle will take place at Nainimo on March 17. Manager George Sedney states that Dobie is showing a lot of class in his workouts with Al Goodwin, and looks for the local boy to put Moore away. An excursion will probably be run to the Coal City for this bout.

Barrieau and Good.

Chet McIntyre, representing Ernie Barrieau and Billy Wolten, who is looking after Sam Good's interests, got together yesterday and agreed on terms for a ten-round bout at Edmonds, Burnaby, on Thursday, March 12. The weight will be 135 pounds at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of the bout, and the boys must post forfeits of $150.
San Francisco, March 5.—Sixteen thousand dollars for a fight with either Joe Rivers or Ad. Wolgast July 4 is the offer made here to Light-weight Champion Willie Ritchie by Promoter Billy Kyne.

GOLFERS ROBBED.

Seattle, March 5.—A well-dressed man, with an air of ready money, entered the grounds and clubhouse of the Seattle Golf and Country Club yesterday, nodded a friendly how-to-you-do to half a dozen members whom he did not know and then proceeded to the locker room, which he robbed of a gold watch and $57 belonging to three of the members.

GRIMM MATCHED.

Articles were signed yesterday for a finish match in Vancouver on Tuesday, March 25, between Pat Connolly, British heavy-weight champion, and Polly Grimm, Seattle's giant grapper. Dan Salt signed the articles for Grimm. The men will wrestle catch-as-catch-can style, best two in three falls, for a side bet of $500.

TENNIS DATES.

Vancouver, B. C., March 5.—Dates for the 1913 tournaments of clubs affiliated with the North Pacific International Lawn Tennis Association have been submitted to officials of the governing body and will probably be approved without change. ### WILL TREATY BE RENEWED.

Japan-American Arbitration Agreement Expires in August.

With regard to the continuation or abrogation of the Japan-American Arbitration Treaty, which expires in August of this year, the authorities of the department of foreign affairs are quoted to the effect, in Japan exchanges, that the treaty was concluded in 1905 at the initiative of the American government, ratification being effected and treaties exchanged in August of the same year. The treaty was concluded for the purpose of peacefully settling any disputes relating to the interpretation of laws and treaties between both countries. The continuation or otherwise of the treaty depends entirely upon the wishes of the American government. In view of the fact that no disputes necessitating the application of the treaty have so far arisen, the treaty has not come to be regarded as of an important nature, but as there is no objection to the maintenance of the treaty, the Japanese government will offer no opposition to its continuation if it is proposed by the American government.

PAY-AS-YOU-ENTER SYSTEM SOON IN USE

Victoria Street Cars to Follow Lead of Other Branches of B. C. E. R.

The pay-as-you-enter system on street cars is soon to come into vogue in this city. The British Columbia Electric Railway has tried the system with success in Vancouver and along other lines, and is bent now on introducing the method into Victoria. The new cars which arrived in the city yesterday are of the "pay-as-you-enter" type, and they, together with other new cars soon expected, will be put on the three Fort Street runs, Oak Bay, Foul Bay and the Willows, and on these three routes the system will receive its initial tryout.

Should the method prove satisfactory, it will be continued on the other branches of the local lines. The great virtue of this system is that it preserves a distinct division between exit and ingress, and gives the conductor better opportunity for preventing overcrowding and for seeing to the safety of the passengers.

ROLLING STOCK IS BEING AUGMENTED

Two Passenger Cars and Six Steel Freight Cars Have Arrived

The rolling stock of the B. C. E. railway in this city is again undergoing that expansion which the company feels it necessary to sustain in order to keep pace with the progress of the city. Two new cars arrived yesterday and will be put on the streets this week. They are of the double-ended type, and save for being used for a very short time in Vancouver are new cars. In addition to the passenger vehicles six steel freight wagons for use on the Saanich inter-urban have also crossed the Straits to be in readiness so soon as the line is open for traffic.

The first passenger cars for the Saanich line are also nearing Victoria, and may be expected within the next few days. The first shipment will contain half a dozen very large passenger vehicles of the type used with such success on the Vancouver-Burnaby-Westminster lines. Each car is divided into two parts for smoking and non-smoking, and is especially adapted in other ways for longer distance travelling, being easy riding and possessing many conveniences not to be found on the ordinary street car. As soon as the line in question has been completed, several officials of the company, A. T. Goward, local manager; Superintendent Trippe, and Mr. Picken, of this city, together with the inter-urban superintendent of Vancouver, will travel over the route and choose locations for the various stations along the line.

FATHER OF WIRELESS.

Sir William Preece Now in Egypt for Benefit of His Health.

Sir William Preece has gone to Egypt, where he intends to remain until May for the benefit of his health. One of the most distinguished Welshmen, "the father of wireless telegraphy," became divisional engineer when the government took over the telegraph companies. He was promoted to be electrician in 1877, and engineer-in-chief in 1892.
As long ago as 1875 Sir William succeeded in telegraphing across the Solent when the cable to the Isle of Wight was broken—the year Mr. Marconi was born. Wireless telegraphy became a practical fact in 1892 when during the repair of a cable between Oban and the island of Mull, a distance of three or four miles, the post office business was carried on by this means for two or three weeks. Sir William afterwards placed all the resources of the post-office at Mr. Marconi's disposal and gave him every possible aid in his experiments.

AN EASY WAY TO REMOVE SUPER- FLUOUS HAIR

For the benefit of our lady readers who suffer from the unsightly disfigurement of hair on face, lips or chin, we publish herewith a formula which has the advantage of being simple and inexpensive, as well as marvellously effective. It is not claimed by our informant that one application will permanently destroy the hair roots, but it is claimed, and the claims are borne out by actual tests, that one application completely removes the hair, and its regular use, one or two days apart, will quickly and permanently destroy the hair root itself. If you have hair which you wish permanently removed, ask your druggist to mix 4½ drams Pulverized Sulphur Concentrate with 2½ drams Zinc Oxide, and 1 dram of Powdered Orris Root, and put in a wide mouth bottle. For use, mix a little of the powder into a paste with a plate by adding a few drops of water. Apply with a narrow knife blade and remove at the end of two minutes with the back of the knife, when the dissolved hair will come with it. Repeat at intervals of two days. Each time the growth will be less, until it entirely disappears.
CAUTION—This is not to be used as a substitute for shaving, as its repeated use completely destroys the hair roots.

ESQUIMALT FINDS IT HAS NO BY-LAWS

Solicitor Says Absence of the Reeve's Signature Voids All Enactments—To Be Reread

There is no law in Esquimalt except the criminal code, a collection of laws for which the municipal council cannot in any way be held responsible. Although the township has been incorporated since September last, that council has not made a single law. Such is the effect of a bomb thrown into the suburban municipality by Thornton Fell, K. C., this morning. Every one of the by-laws is invalid and must be re-passed, he has notified the reeve.

The discovery that all might not be well was made when the new clerk, A. B. Ellis, came into office a few days ago and the councillors went over the papers of the municipality to hand them in ship-shape to the new official. It was then found that the pound by-law was not signed by the late reeve, C. H. Lugin.

Some of the other by-laws were looked over, with the result that they were all submitted to the solicitor, Thornton Fell. The absence of the reeve's signature was not the only thing lacking to make the by-laws effective.

They were not signed by the clerk. They did not bear the corporation seal. They were not filed in the County Court. Aside from these minor procedures everything was done as it should be by the council. The by-laws all passed through three readings and were then permitted to be enforced. It is feared that some revenue from the license and building by-laws will have to be refunded. All the fees for permits were illegally collected. It is declared, and it is possible that the builders may avail themselves of the technicality to obtain their money back. The hotel men were also obliged to pay an increased license fee, $400 instead of $200. The money in these cases will probably be placed in the hands of the clerk in case any of the persons affected desire to recover it. The whole question will be taken up

That "SKUNKY" Taste
in Some Beers

is caused by the action of Light.

This is the deliberate opinion of no less an authority than Philip Dreesbach, German expert and scientist in the Wahl-Henius Institute of Fermentology. He says:

"Beer acted upon by light soon takes up the very disagreeable, so-called 'light taste,' and also a repulsive skunk-like odor. Beer so affected is offensive to the palate of most consumers, and there is probably nothing that will influence them more against any brand of bottled beer than to have once tasted beer possessing this 'light taste' to a marked degree. The presence of this defect, however, is not always the bottler's fault, as the consumer himself very often lets the beer stand in the light. But the consequences must usually be borne by the bottler."

Schlitz is sold in Brown Bottles to protect its purity from the brewery to your glass.

In our brewery we spend more in purity—in time, in skill and in money—than any other cost.

Why don't you, too, demand the pure beer—Schlitz in Brown Bottles?

SOLDIER IS INJURED BY SKIDDING CYCLE

Suffers Two Fractures in Accident on Government Street—Is Progressing

An accident took place the evening before last on Government street, opposite Weller's furniture store, when a motor-cycle skidded and violently collided with William Pagett, a soldier who was crossing the street at the time, knocking him over. Two or three people rushed to his assistance at once, and found that the injured man was suffering from two broken bones, the fractured ends of which were seen protruding through the flesh. The police ambulance was called, but was absent in another part of the city. The Victoria Transfer ambulance was next called. Onlookers stated that the suffering man lay for twenty minutes on the hard pavement before he was removed to the Jubilee hospital. He is progressing favorably.

RETURN ON EXPROPRIATIONS.

Return is Being Prepared on Sooke Waterworks—Bernath Case on Friday.

The expropriations of right-of-way for the Sooke waterworks will be resumed on Friday, when the arbitrators and officials interested will pay a visit to Humpback to inspect the Bernath (Brown) property.

A return on the expropriations will be made by the water commissioner at an early meeting of the council, and an attempt will be made to place the aldermen in possession of the facts, which have never yet been published regarding the sum tied up in land expropriations for the waterworks. From time to time last summer certain amounts have been mentioned in settling individual cases but no real return on the situation has been available.

The resident engineer, Boyd Ehle, says that the work going on in connection with the waterworks is practically restricted to right-of-way work between Sooke lake and Humpback reservoir, although weather conditions have improved recently, making operations practicable.

Misunderstanding Calls Out Department.—The fire department had a needless run this morning to 2652 Rose street, the home of J. Cohen. It appears that Mr. Cohen, who is known to Chief Davis, was called up on the telephone by some one who said that there was a fire at the house. He rushed in to alarm the department on his way out. The men discovered the useless character of the trip before covering the whole distance to Rose street.

"ALL IS LOST!"

If one were in the last throes of despair no words would convey more fully the complete abandonment of hope that is summed up in the three words—"All is lost." The mental anguish of such a phrase is undoubtedly felt by dyspeptic people to-day. It was General Graham in the Peninsula War who uttered these three words—"All is lost"—when he realised that his own health was broken, even though he had decisively beaten his enemy the day before.

A host of people—both men and women—who are despondent because of their poor health, do not realise that most of their sufferings arise from indigestion. The one sure cure for all ailments arising from a disordered state of the organs of digestion is Mother Seigel's Syrup. This was amply proved by Mr. J. E. Mullaly, of Lorne, Kestigouche Co., B. N., when his health failed. Writing on January 22nd, 1912, he says: "Seven years ago I began to be afflicted with stomach trouble. There was severe pain not only in my stomach but at my right side, especially after eating. I nearly always felt sick and sometimes vomited even after eating a small quantity of quite plain food. Constipation and offensive breath were then added to my first affliction, and my complexion became sallow—quite unlike my colour in the time of good health."

It is almost needless to say that life lost all charm for me and my spirit sank lower every day. This will not surprise anyone, when I tell them how entirely I failed to find a medicine that could cure, or even relieve, me. I tried many medicines and thought I had tried them all. But one—the best—remained. It was the well-known remedy, Mother Seigel's Syrup. I had left till the last what ought to have been first.

"Mother Seigel's Syrup soon worked a great improvement in my condition. My pains decreased, my appetite improved. Mine was a bad case, and I continued to take the Syrup for nearly a year—but I am liberally repaid, being as well-to-day as any man need be."

Mother Seigel's Syrup is a sure cure for stomach troubles. It is made from the extracts of more than ten different roots, herbs and barks which have a remarkable tonic effect on the organs of digestion—the stomach, liver and bowels—enabling them to do their work in a natural way.

TWO NOMINATIONS MADE IN ESQUIMALT

W. J. Cave and G. E. Wilkinson Named to Run in Ward Three

William John Cave, accountant, of Dominion Road, and George E. Wilkinson of Admiral's Road, were nominated for the vacant councillorship in the municipality of Esquimalt. The vacancy is due to the death of Councillor Rea who represented Ward Three. The candidates are from two different wards, Mr. Cave being from Ward 3 and Mr. Wilkinson from Ward 1. The election will take place on Saturday next, March 8, from 9 a. m. to 7 p. m. at the clerk's office, Lampson street school, and not at the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home, as previously stated.

WILL SHORTLY SETTLE GARBAGE QUESTION

Problem of Control is Still Indefinite—Chairman of Committee Awaits Developments

That the combination of the street cleaning department, now under the city engineer, and the garbage collection service under the medical health officer, as a sanitary works department under the charge of Alderman Porter, is going to cause trouble before it is effected, is the opinion expressed by some who are in close touch with civic affairs.

It is Mayor Morley's intention to transfer the work from the doctor to the engineering department, and he has so provisionally notified the city engineer.

The medical health officer agrees that the departments should be amalgamated under one head, but objects to the department of garbage collection being divorced from him, and therefore it is likely he will require a resolution of council before acting in a matter which represents some $100,000 a year of his expenditure.

Alderman Porter is waiting till the mayor indicates his intentions finally, saying that it is a matter of entire indifference who is appointed as technically responsible for the branch of the service in which he has been placed in charge, so long as there is no conflict of authority. As the alderman will have charge of spending a quarter of a million dollars a year on street cleaning and garbage collection, he is not inclined to deprecate it in the way some aldermen did when the appointment was first made for the control of the white wings brigade.

No change has yet been made in the system which has prevailed in the past of leaving the two branches in charge of separate departmental heads.

LORD MACAULAY'S NIECE.

Mrs. Fell, Lord Macaulay's favorite niece, has just died in Withington Workhouse Hospital, Manchester. Mrs. Fell, who was eighty-five years of age, was the widow of the late Rev. Mr. Fell, who had a distinguished career in the Midlands. Mrs. Fell's only child—a daughter—is in India. For some time the old lady received an allowance of £1 per week from her relatives, but when the last illness came and two nurses were necessary to attend her, the money was not sufficient to save her from dying in a workhouse hospital.

The Chinese import large quantities of newspapers from England. They are used as wallpapers.

an answer had been given and that it must be accepted.

But Mr. Pugsley persisted in his demand, and his remarks were greeted with Conservative cries of "Order" and "Name him."

Amidst Liberal applause and Conservative shouts of dissent Mr. Pugsley said it is absolutely impossible to speak intelligently on the matter when it is impossible to secure information to which we are entitled.

Hon. T. W. Crothers asked the chair to rule Mr. Pugsley out of order.

The former minister of public works said that he would yield to any proper ruling.

But you don't yield, shouted Mr. Hazen.

Mr. Pugsley continued to hold the floor. These faulty estimates have been given, he said, for the purpose of inducing the Canadian people to swallow the emergency talk and abandon the policy of a Canadian navy.

"If the member insists in disobeying the chair," shouted Major Currie, "it is in the competency of yourself, Mr. Chairman, to name him."

After some further disturbance Chairman Armstrong expressed a disinclination to follow Major Currie's advice.

Then Mr. Pugsley was on his feet again. "Who is the gentleman who wants to see me named," he said with a smile, "parliament is entitled to this information." Then the incident closed.

With L. P. Gaudier, St. Hyacinthe, speaking at an early hour, E. B. Devlin, of Wright, claimed that there was not a quorum and that the House should rise.

Hon. W. T. White, after counting noses, said that Mr. Devlin was mistaken. The necessary score were in the chamber. Additional members were sent for, however.

Mr. McLean, of Halifax, contended that there should be no ringing of bells.

Mr. Devlin maintained that at ten minutes to six there were only seventeen members in the House, including the chairman. He raised the point of order that the Minister of Finance, who was leading the House, should accept his statement. Mr. White said he had counted twenty-seven members in the House. The member Mr. Wright was mistaken about there being no quorum.

Mr. Devlin—I shall accept the minister's statements, but I would advise him to turn around sooner the next time.

Dr. Neeley, of Humboldt, was speaking at eight o'clock when Hon. Robert Rogers arrived to relieve the Minister of Finance. The Conservatives stopped him from speaking.

A little later Hon. Geo. P. Graham complained because of the noise which he said was being made by Messrs. Bennett, Smyth and Meighen. "I have never seen such conduct in a deliberative chamber," he asserted.

Dr. Neeley said that the noises did not disturb him. Conservative members could not make speeches, he said, and they should not be denied the privilege of making noises. Dr. Neeley maintained that the people of the Dominion as a whole were opposed to the idea of contributions. He challenged the government to go to the country.

Premier Borden came into the chamber shortly before 10 o'clock, but found the proceedings rather slow and retired shortly after.

Mr. Lapointe, of Kamouraska, who had been speaking in French for two hours, digressed from his theme long enough to wish the premier a cordial good morning.

At 10 o'clock Mr. Devlin, of Wright, continued the debate. He surprised the members by addressing the House in French. He raised the point of order that clause 2 of the bill is unconstitutional, but Mr. Nickle, of Kingston, who was in the chair, said that they could not rule it out until it had been declared unconstitutional. He could not be expected, he averred, to decide important constitutional questions.

At 11 o'clock Thos. McNutt, of Saltcoats, took the floor, which was probably the longest speech ever made by him in the House. He said that the fairness of the west do not believe that the necessity exists for the proposed contribution. They would be much more inclined to support a policy which would provide for the guarding of their product on the way to market.

Promptly at 12 o'clock Hon. Frank Oliver, the captain of one of the Liberal shifts, relieved Hon. Wm. Pugsley, who had been leading the Liberals from 4 o'clock in the morning. A few minutes later Premier Borden came into the House for the second time, and engaged in conversation with Hon. Robert Rogers.

Hon. Jacques Bureau had the floor at the time, and he soon got into a good-natured exchange with Mr. Borden. Mr. Bureau said that the House had been in session since 3 o'clock on Monday, and the Conservatives had said nothing. It was clear that they had lost confidence in their proposal.

"You are a great joker," remarked one of the Conservative members. "The country will not appreciate the silent jokers on the other side of the House," retorted Mr. Bureau. He went on to say that this was the most important measure which had been before parliament since the B. N. A. Act, and accused Premier Borden of pettifoggery in endeavoring to vote for the clause under discussion. As a good lawyer, Mr. Borden would know that no clause of a contract or bill could be considered apart from its context.

Mr. Bureau then asked the premier to state whether his bill provided for a gift alone or a contribution. In doing so he said he had been talking to the premier for fifteen minutes, but Mr. Borden had paid no attention to him. Evidently, he did not consider the bill very important.

"I regard it as quite important," said Mr. Borden, "but I do not regard as important some of the observations made by some of the members on the other side of the House. The policy of

THE COMING OF SPRING

Is heralded in many ways and not the least important to a woman's mind is the arrival from the World's Fashion Centres of the beautiful apparel which she must wear to be in harmony with the awakening of Nature. Many Victoria ladies have pleasant memories of the beautiful exhibition of such things held at Gordon's last year. We know that they will come again and we promise them that however great their expectations may be they will not be disappointed. To those who have not yet visited our store we would suggest that Thursday—the opening day—would be a fitting opportunity to begin an acquaintance which we know would prove mutually pleasant and profitable. To-morrow the wonderful new Millinery creations, the superb Suits and charming Dresses, the delightful Dress Fabrics, and indeed everything which goes to complete a woman's toilet will be ready for your inspection. The artistic Home Furnishings, too, will be ready, that you may choose such Carpets and Draperies as will fittingly crown the ordeal of "Spring Cleaning." Come to-morrow then, and remember that you are free to walk around the store at your leisure, to see everything we have and to use our service to the utmost.

EXCLUDE WOMEN AT SUFFRAGETTE HEARING

London, March 5.—Alice Stevenson, alias Ethel Slade, a militant suffragette, was sentenced to nine months' imprisonment at the Old Bailey sessions to-day on a charge of having placed glass tubes containing fluid phosphorus in a letter box.

The judge excluded all women from the court during the hearing, despite the voluble protests of Miss Stevenson, who alleged that it was an injustice not to have her case reported by a woman reporter.

Under the name of Ethel Slade the accused was sentenced to four months' imprisonment in London last November for damaging shop windows.

IDEAS OF A PLAIN MAN By DR. FRANK CRANE.

DR. FRANK CRANE.

You are never going to grasp modern poetry, particularly French poetry, until you give up the purpose of seeking any sense in it.

It is purely decorative, like wallpaper. It has but two dimensions—length and breadth. It has no thickness, that is to say it is devoid of ideas.

Ideas seem to be out of date. They are crude. What we want apparently is moods, impressions, shades of feeling.

To be definite, clear and understandable is a sign of mediocrity.

Some time ago the poets of Paris elected a "prince." His name was Paul Fort. Here is one of his "little things."

"There is a hum of the tempestuous silence, is no one passing? The paving stones count the géraniums. The géraniums count the paving stones. Dream, young girl, at thy window."

They peas are shelled. They swell thy white apron, which thy pink fingers have knotted. I pass clothed in black behind me the paving-stones count the peas. There is a hum of the tempestuous silence. Is no one passing? Can you beat it?

COULDN'T GO ON STAGE.

An American philanthropist made a business of getting jobs for men just out of jail, and one day a notorious crackman came to him with a letter of introduction from the chaplain. "I've the very thing you want," said the philanthropist, when the jail-bird had dilated adequately and with pride upon his exploits. "I'll see my friend Briggs; come to-morrow morning." The crackman, encouraged by the prospect of honest work, appeared promptly at the appointed hour. "You're to go to work at once," said the philanthropist. "My friend Briggs is producing a melodrama. In it is a scene where a burglar enters the room and cracks a safe. It'll only take you a few minutes, and you don't have to speak a word; just execute the job with the minute detail that will make it look real. Your salary will be fifty dollars a week." The crackman shook his head dolefully. "Sorry I can't take the job, boss!" "Can't take it? Why, it's the chance of your life!" "Can't help it, boss; I promised my mother I'd never go on the stage!"

Morecambe, Wales, derives its name from the word "more," meaning "more."

Employed in a Paris exhibition in 1903, there was a machine known as the photogram, which was intended to preserve the portrait, voice and gestures of human beings.

For Rough, Wrinkled, Freckled, Pimpled Skin

(From the Women's Home Journal.) As March winds, flying dust and dirt, are apt to injure the complexion, this information will be of special value right now. If you have any cutaneous blemish, don't use paint, powder or anything else to cover it up. Too often this only emphasizes the defect. Besides, it's much easier to remove the disfigurement with ordinary mercuric wax. Applied nightly, the wax will gradually remove freckles, pimples, blackheads, moth-patches, sallowness, red or yellow blotches, or any surface eruptions. The affected cuticle is absorbed, a little each day, until the clear, soft, youthful and beautiful skin beneath is brought wholly to view. Ask the druggist for an ounce of mercuric wax and use this like you use cold cream. Remove in morning with soap and water. Many who have tried this simple and harmless treatment report astonishing results.

If bothered with wrinkles and furrows, a wash lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half-pint witch hazel will prove wonderfully effective.

IT KNOCKS OUT YOUR LA GRIPPE

Robinson Thermal or "Turkish" Bath
at Home, Costing but a Few Cents Produces Astonishing Results.

Drugless Treatment Proves Revelation
in Treatment of Many Diseases.

One Robinson Thermal or Turkish Bath for those suffering from La Grippe will do more good in a half hour than a week of dosing and drugging in bed—infinitely more than can be expected from any drug in the world.

The almost paralyzing effect of La Grippe—of laying hold of the organs and bones, with the whole body wracked with pain, is overcome at once by the Thermal Bath that opens up all the pores, makes the waste and poisons run away, and leaves the system clean and strong, free of every symptom.

The intense exquisite feeling of happiness, strength, and mental clearness which results is impossible to express in words.

Open up the pores and the change seems almost miraculous; nerves are strengthened at once, kidneys get well; eczema, pimples and skin diseases vanish; bad colds, lumbago, rheumatism, dyspepsia, throat and lung trouble, insomnia and constipation disappear as though some wonderful force had lifted them away.

"I suffered terribly from rheumatism, heart and stomach trouble—physicians pronounced me incurable—until I got a Robinson Bath Cabinet. My skin was yellow—I had lost 40 pounds weight. One doctor said I had consumption. Had severe hemorrhages. But to-day I am well—enjoying good health—and cannot be grateful enough for Robinson's Thermal Bath Cabinet."—Mrs. A. Blanchard, 625 Ashwood St., Toledo, Ohio.

Every man or woman can now have a Robinson Thermal Bath at home, at a cost of but a few cents, and without trouble.

This can be done only by the Robinson Thermal Bath Cabinet, which is a model of ingenuity. No matter what the size of your purse you can have one of these cabinets.

The Robinson Thermal Bath Cabinets are now being exhibited, and on sale in Victoria at C. H. Bowes, Government Street.

Ask the dealer also for that great book, "The Philosophy of Health and Beauty." The regular price is $2.00, but you can get one free for a limited time.

Don't pass another day without seeing these cabinets. If you cannot go yourself, just send your name and address to-day to ROBINSON MFG. CO., Suite 387, Robinson Bldg., Toledo, Ohio, for full illustrated information free.

NORTHEAST DISTRICT SEWER CONNECTIONS

Citizens' League Discusses Question of Better Provision for Removal of Sewage

The sewerage question in the Northeast portion of the city was the principal subject discussed by the meeting of the Northeast Citizens' League last evening. With the large amount of building going on in Oaklands and Fernwood, the necessity of passing from the stage of septic tanks to those of proper sanitary sewers was strongly urged on the meeting.

Watson Clark occupied the chair, and there was some discussion on the situation with a view to having the city council approached for a connection with the Northeast sewer, and the immediate construction of the Hillside avenue sewer for which an appropriation has been set aside. The members recognized the difficulty of doing anything at the present time while the city is short of funds, but appointed a small committee to interview Mayor Morley on improvements.

The members of the Citizens' League expressed their satisfaction at the progress made on the Oaklands school, which has long been required. Probably in the near future addresses on various subjects will be made to the league, it being the desire of the members to broaden the scope of its usefulness.

AUSTRALIANS DON'T DO MUCH TALKING

Are Quietly Building Up Their Naval and Military Defences

"The manner in which the Australians are going about the construction of their navy, and the formation of a strong military force is remarkable, if only for the quietness with which it is being undertaken. One may live for months in Sydney and Melbourne, the chief centres of the movement, and hear very little discussion of the question. But under all what impresses the stranger is the strong current of nationalism. The Australians are awakening to a national spirit."

In the foregoing words Mr. P. Duffy, of San Francisco, who controls the fruit export and import business between Australia and New Zealand, and the United States and Canada, summed up his impressions of the work which is being done in Australia to build up a strong fleet unit. Mr. Duffy, who is a middle-aged gentleman who has travelled very widely, has just returned from Australia on the Zealandia, reaching here yesterday afternoon and proceeding to San Francisco from Vancouver last night.

"Yes," he continued, "it is really a national spirit which is developing out there. When the naval scheme was first proposed the Australians as a whole were somewhat diffident about entering on the programme, involving, as it does, an expenditure of eighty million pounds sterling. But once the work was commenced, so efficient were those who were put in charge, the whole Commonwealth entered into the movement with a spirit which augurs well for its ultimate success. At present in the Cockatoo naval dockyard in Sydney they have laid the keel of the Brisbane, a swift protected cruiser, and the super-Dreadnought Australia, is due to arrive in Australian waters in the immediate future. Then they have six destroyers and torpedo boats in commission, and several destroyers in course of construction at Cockatoo."

"As to the compulsory service, what little friction you have heard of was due to a mere handful of rowdy boys, such as will creep into any organization. In that case the boys were soon brought to order and nothing more has been heard of such incidents. The attitude of the Australian people towards compulsory service may be said to have been somewhat similar to their attitude on the naval question at first. There was considerable opposition at first, but even the most strenuous opponents of the movement have now lost their enthusiasm for the fight against it and are entering into the idea with almost as much enthusiasm as its most ardent advocates. The Commonwealth people don't understand the Canadians' attitude on the naval question very well; but they refrain from any comments, looking to Canada to do its part in its own way."

Accompanying Mr. Duffy is his daughter, Miss L. Duffy, whose home is in Sydney. She goes to San Francisco with her father, returning to Australia in about two months.

CAPTAIN PHILLIPS HIGHLY HONORED

Passengers Make Costly Presentation to Popular Skipper of Australian Mailboat

The present visit of R. M. S. Zealandia being the last the steamer will make to British Columbia ports, it is probable that the skipper has been seen of Captain J. D. S. Phillips, her commander. For years he has been coming here regularly every few months, and during that time he has become decidedly popular with many people in Vancouver and Victoria, and the travelling public.

It is seldom indeed that a master of a vessel is so signally honored by those in his care as Captain Phillips was by the passengers of the Zealandia en route from Sydney to Victoria. The night the vessel left Honolulu he was made the recipient of a costly clock and set of silver candlesticks, as a testimonial of their appreciation of his unflinching tact and courtesy.

The presentation was made by H. Selous, chairman of the sports committee on board, who took occasion to point out that a very large number of those who have made the trip to Australia by the Canadian route have done so just for the pleasure of travelling in company with Captain Phillips. Mr. Selous is a brother of F. C. Selous, the noted African big game hunter, who was with ex-President Theodore Roosevelt's party in Central Africa a few years ago.

Speeches were also made by Messrs. P. Duffy, H. W. Benskin, E. Rose, Montgomery and Fallon, a prominent Boston business man.

Captain Phillips will visit this side again some time in the future, as he has large interests in Vancouver and Victoria; but the keynote of the speeches made at the presentation was the unanimous expression of the hope that the Union Company would retain him on the Canadian-Australian run.

He is to be the guest of honor at a banquet in Vancouver this week.

TICKETS SELL WELL FOR GRIT CLUB DINNER

List of Speakers for Function Next Week—Meeting Tonight Over Organization

The following speakers have accepted the invitation of the Grit Club to speak at the dinner next Wednesday: H. C. Brewster, president of the provincial Liberal Association; Malcolm A. Macdonald, W. B. Ferris and Charles McDonald, and the provincial Liberal organizer, W. W. Baer.

The toasts will be proposed by the members of the club and he responded to by the visitors mentioned. H. C. Hall will preside and already more than half the tickets have been sold for the function.

This evening there will be a meeting of the leading Liberals of the city to discuss the situation arising from the Provincial Elections—Act amendment and the protection of the interests of the electors under the new list now in preparation.

the committee, has resigned to accept a position with a private firm.

Y. M. C. A. Circus.—A little over one thousand people attended the circus of the Y. M. C. A. last Friday and Saturday night; and Mr. Witham, the general secretary of the association here, is highly gratified with the profit which was made and which will be used for the general fund of the association.

Alpine Club Camp.—The members of the Canadian Alpine Club are making arrangements for a camp on Mount Robson this year, and applications from the members who wish to participate in the trip next June are being received by Mr. McCullough, the secretary here. The number of those who will be allowed to join the party is necessarily limited, but it is expected that out of the eight hundred members about eighty will be in the Rockies this summer.

Retrenchment in Works Department.—Since the beginning of the year, Mayor Morley said this morning, there have been 37 members of the staff of the works department laid off owing to the financial stringency. When he was in office before 18 were let out from the various departments and in the last week another 19 men have been released, without reducing the efficiency of the department, the mayor says. The saving represents $3,460 a month in salaries.

Commence Arbitration.—The sole arbitrator, Hugh Kennedy, sat at the city hall this morning in connection with the claim for compensation of James A. Bland for land expropriated to extend Bank street. After formally coming to order it was decided to adjourn to the scene and to resume evidence in the afternoon. Another case of a similar character will be taken to-morrow. City Solicitor Robertson appears for the city, and F. A. McDermid for Mr. Bland.

School Board.—The monthly meeting of the school board will be held on next Wednesday. Beyond routine business there does not seem to be much prospect of a heavy list. The question of school accommodation has still to be taken up. In view of the increase steps will have to be taken shortly. The return for the high school, which was not available yesterday shows a total average attendance in February of 399 pupils, a slight decrease from the figures for January.

VOTES FOR WOMEN.

To the Editor, I am very sorry to have hurt the feelings of any great admirer of Mr. Lloyd George, as Mr. Woodward evidently is, and I am still more sorry to cross swords with Mr. Woodward, who has been a generous supporter of our cause in British Columbia. But facts are facts, and though I am sure he is sincere in the attitude he adopts, I have to say emphatically that my statements in the Times last week were absolutely correct, and I may add that there are persons in Victoria who are in a position to corroborate them if necessary. Moreover, my outline, the truth of which Mr. Woodward disputes, tallies accurately with Mrs. Pankhurst's speech to the jury at the Old Bailey, May 15-22nd, 1912, of which the verbatim report is open to the public, though I wrote the outline from experience and personal knowledge of the facts. The same story may be read in Miss Sylvia Pankhurst's book, "The Suffragette," on sale in this city, in Mr. Petrick-Lawrence's book on the Franchise Movement, which I have here in the office, and it could be traced by anyone in the file of the Manchester Guardian, or any other of the few papers which, throughout the campaign, have, however strongly they disapproved at first of militant tactics, reported them accurately; and a final corroboration of my account may be read to-day in Victoria in a little book called "Woman Suffrage," on sale at Hibben's, by Mrs. Fawcett, leader of the constitutional wing, who herself strongly deprecates militancy. I have never before heard anyone deny the violence to which the women were from the very first subjected, and I cannot understand Mr. Woodward doing so.

That is a brief general reply to this letter, but I would like also to take it categorically. I. "It is regrettable that Miss Davis should announce her approval of feminine hoodlomanism in England. By so doing she will postpone the day of woman's victory in B. C." Mr. Woodward attributes to this government an illogicality which I think is undeserved. As I invariably state that militancy is only justifiable when all other methods have been tried and have failed, and that there is practically no chance of its being at any time a cloud on the political horizon of this country, a government which delayed giving justice to the women of B. C. on account of my personal opinions with regard to a political situation 6,000 miles away, would certainly thereby prove its unfitness for office.

2. "Moral causes are not advanced by immorality."

While militant tactics are open to argument and to censure, it should be remembered that there are a great many things which, though normally wrong or undesirable, may in certain circumstances become entirely right; in other words, that some actions are moral or immoral, wholly by virtue of their motive, or in view of facts surrounding them. For instance, everyone will admit that while it is hateful, "unladylike" and deplorable to break windows, yet if a person were shut up in a burning house and the only way of waking and saving him were to smash his way out, and so get in, it would be not only "moral," but the bounden duty of anyone, even the "anti-est" of women, to take that course of action.

And this has been the view of men of all ages and all nations and all kinds. Mr. Henry George (whom Mr. Woodward quotes) expresses it in his book, "Social Problems": "When... it is persistently insisted into the masses that all things in this world are ordered by Divine Providence... that it is their duty towards God and man to 'honor and obey' the civil authority... when these counsels of contentment... are enforced... the most glaring inequalities in condition may excite either envy or indignation. But the ideas that are stirring in the world to-day are different from these... when a mighty winds meets a strong current it does not portend a smooth sea." (Pp. 38, 39.) The great crises in British history have always been battles along the road to freedom. From Magna Carta, in 1214-5, to the reform bill in 1832, every step of British liberty has been won by violence and "immoral" breaking of the law of man to enforce a higher law.

Lord Acton once wrote: "It seems to be a law of political freedom that no great advance in human freedom can ever be gained except at the display of some kind of violence."

Mr. Winston Churchill, speaking in the House of Commons on August 8, 1911, is reported to have said: "It is true that there was rioting in 1832, but the people had no vote then, and had very little choice as to the alternative they should adopt."

The London Times said in November: "It is always technically wrong to commit an assault, but the law holds it equally reprehensible to offer insults or inflict injuries which it is not in human nature to suffer with patience."

The Spectator said of the conduct of the militant Unionist members in the House and in their speeches: "In my opinion, then, the opposition showed a true instinct for liberty and a true appreciation of the greatness of the issue before them, which they determined to run all risks and to sink all so-called considerations of public decency and good manners to prevent the creation of an intolerable precedent... The course pursued... did not damage the House of Commons. Rather it preserved it from degradation. We congratulate Mr. Bonar Law and his supporters on having shown both courage and strength of purpose, and on not having been frightened by the thought that their action might be misunderstood."

Mr. Bonar Law remarked at the Albert hall: "There are limits which pass the powers of human endurance and limits which ought not to be endured. Whatever injury was done to the House of Commons was not done by us... It was done by the government."

Quotations such as these may be multiplied a hundredfold. There are undoubtedly times in the history of nations, of classes, of individuals, when submission and silence are degrading, and those times occur when the issue at stake is a moral ideal, when patience becomes a cowardly acquiescence in evil.

But I repeat that no one hates militancy as passionately as those women who have felt it their duty to adopt it—at a cost which no one who has never made the same sacrifice can realize.

2. Mr. Woodward refers to "scratching and kicking antics."

There have been occasions when women being thrown out of meetings or arrested struggled with every limb; but who would not struggle when being victimised by assaults which should come within the scope of the criminal code? When a woman is being held by two or more men, and subjected to every kind of insult she is justified in struggling in every way she can. My statements are completely corroborated by the accompanying memorandum, which is too long to print, but of which I have copies. I will gladly show to anyone who would care to see it—which was drawn up and issued by men from every party in the House, including Mr. Ellis Griffith, a prominent Liberal and eminent lawyer; Sir John Balfour, Mr. Hugh Law, Mr. Kell Hardie and about forty others; and the facts detailed in that memorandum were given on oath by 146 persons who were either victims, or witnesses, or those who had medically examined as sufferers—the other great lawyer to whom the evidence was submitted being Lord Robert Cecil, himself against militancy. This memorandum referred to a specific occasion, but the instances with which it deals are only repetitions of what occurred on every other occasion, in varying degree, and notably at the meeting of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman.

3. "It is not true that the British government have ever broken their promises."

I might here quote from the British daily press almost ad infinitum, but I will simply give a very brief resume of one chapter in the history of the campaign: In 1911 the Conciliation Bill passed its second reading 187; a majority of 187. Mr. Asquith declined to allow it to go into committee. The women saw that they had been tricked again, and as before the coronation in order that men from over the seas might see the truth for themselves, as to the way in which the women were treated. He were in Britain for the coronation, they threatened that unless Mr. Asquith gave them some guarantee in writing they would go to parliament

VOTES FOR WOMEN.

promptly gave that pledge in the following letter:
 "10 Downing street, S.W.
 "16th June, 1911.

"My Dear Lytton—

"In reply to your letter on the subject of facilities for the Women's Enfranchisement Bill, I would refer you to some observations recently made in a speech at the National Liberal Club by Sir Edward Grey, which accurately expresses the intentions of the government.

"It follows (in answer to your specific enquiries) that the week offered will be interpreted with reasonable elasticity, that the government will interpose no obstacle to a proper use of the clause, and that if, as you suggest, the bill gets through committee in the time proposed, the extra days required for report and third reading would not be refused.

"The government, though divided on the merits of the bill, are unanimous in their determination to give effect, not only in the letter, but in the spirit, to the promise in regard to facilities which I made on their behalf before the last general election.

"Believe me,

"Yours, sincerely,

"H. H. ASQUITH."

On the receipt of this definite pledge, militancy was abandoned, a truce was called. The coronation took place. Parliament was then prorogued and women awaited the autumn session. On the morning of November 3 came the announcement of a Manhood Suffrage Bill, for which there was no demand in the country, and which expressly left out women. This action could not be interpreted otherwise than as a shrewd method of avoiding the pledge, as the announcement completely killed the chances of the Conciliation Bill in the way very clearly explained by Mrs. Pethick-Lawrence in a letter to your paper dated September 14.

"Mr. Asquith's own party organ, the Daily News, admitted that his action 'open to criticism.' He promised then a private member's amendment to that Manhood Bill, which, as was pointed out by the W. S. P. U., was a safe promise, as such an amendment was condemned to failure. This has just been proved true.

Then, on November 17, Mr. Lloyd George said to the women: "Don't you commit yourselves too readily to the statement that this is a trick upon woman suffrage. If you find next year (1912), as a result of this trick, that several millions of women have been added in a bill to the franchise, that this bill has been sent to the House of Lords by the government, and that the government stand by that bill whatever the Lords may do, then those who have committed themselves to that ill-conditioned suggestion will look very foolish."

On November 24 at Bath he said: "Now that the Conciliation Bill has been torpedoed, the way is clear for a broad and democratic amendment of the suffrage for women."

And with regard to Mr. Woodward's statement that "the so-called 'Women's Bill' was an attempt to double the vote of the propertied classes," the utter falsity of this may be realised from the fact that the Conciliation Bill (it was never called the 'Women's Bill') was drawn up by a committee consisting of members from every party, of whom the majority, the large majority, were of Mr. Lloyd George's own party, and that before the Labor party would consent to join they satisfied themselves by the most rigorous investigation that it would be essentially a democratic bill, enfranchising about one million, of whom 82 per cent. were of the working class—practically reproducing the municipal register, which is admittedly of a thoroughly democratic character. So much for "propertied classes."

For Mr. Woodward to say that I "hitch the women's cause on to privilege" and "try to use it as a means of enslaving the masses" is too silly, and as groundless an assertion as his assertion that I was not speaking the truth.

I apologise for the length of this letter, but when one makes the subject of a wholesale accusation of falsehood, I think one is entitled to justify one's words. I had no intention of starting a discussion on the British question, except so far as it indirectly affected public opinion here—in connection especially with the Vancouver postmaster incident.

One other point: Mr. Woodward says that Mr. Lloyd George never voted against a Woman Suffrage Bill. I have by me as I write an official list of the names of those voting against the Women Suffrage Amendment to the Home Rule Bill, which was on a purely democratic basis, being, in the charge of Mr. Snowden, a Labor member, and among those names is that of Mr. Lloyd George.

It now remains for your readers to accept either my word or Mr. Woodward's.

DOROTHY M. DAVIS.

DEFENCE OF FRUIT GROWERS.

To the Editor.—Will you kindly allow me the privilege of saying a few words in reply to an article appearing in your issue of March 3, headed, "Okanagan Farmers Pack Fruit Badly," in which Mr. William Stewart, Inspector of the Federal Life Assurance Co., institutes comparisons between Western American and Okanagan apples which are detrimental to Okanagan fruit.

The statement made by Mr. Stewart is incorrect, and he does a gross injustice to the fruit growers of the Okanagan Valley, and his statements if allowed to go uncontradicted, are a reflection on the honesty of our growers and their capability to put up a grade of fruit that will bear favorable comparison with the best American.

I would ask Mr. Stewart how is it that B. C. fruit during the past year, in the markets of the middle west, consistently brought a higher price than that from Oregon and Washington? Our fruit growers in these markets, it is true, owing to the enormous crop all over the American continent, which there was this year, and also largely to lack of efficient co-operative methods in the marketing and distribution of their fruit, realized poor prices, but the Oregon and Washington growers fared much worse. A study of the reports of our market commissioner, who was in the prairie provinces in the interests of the British Columbia fruit grower bill through the shipping season, clearly emphasizes this point. Wholesalers and retailers repeatedly made the statement that British Columbia fruit was superior, both in quality and pack, and that they would always take it when available in preference to the American product.

It must be remembered that our fruit industry is comparatively young, and that up to the present year the quantity of provincial-grown fruit available for export to the markets of the middle west has been very small in comparison with that shipped in by Oregon and Washington growers, consequently fruit dealers have not always been able to secure from our growers straight carload lots of one variety, which the market demands, and therefore they have had to give their orders to our American competitors.

With the rapidly increasing acreage which is annually coming into bearing in our province, we are now, however, in a position to supply not only our home market but also that of the prairie provinces. The Vancouver and Victoria markets have up till now been to a large extent neglected by Okanagan fruit growers for the simple reason that they have been able to secure better prices in the prairie provinces. Every effort will be made by the fruit growers to conserve the home market for their own fruit. They do not fear fair competition, but object, and naturally so, to the unfair and ruinous competition which they have had to meet during the past year in the markets of the middle west. Hundreds of carloads of fruit from Oregon and Washington were shipped into these markets on consignment, and auctioned off for what they would fetch, in many cases not bringing the American grower sufficient to pay transportation charges and cost of boxes.

Again, fruit was sold at f. o. b. prices in Oregon and Washington at as low as thirty cents a box, which of course is less than what the fruit can be produced for. This is the competition which the provincial grower has to meet, and appears to be neither just nor equitable.

Mr. Stewart's statement might apply to individual instances—where the grower packs his own fruit—but the many packing associations which we have in the province at the present time there is not much of the farmer's pack put on the market, anyway from the Okanagan Valley. Associations like the Okanagan Fruit Union, Vernon Fruit Co., Stirling & Pitcairn, Kelowna Farmers' Exchange, Salmon Arm Farmers' Exchange, and several others, put up a grade of fruit equal to the very best of the American, and I challenge Mr. Stewart's statement that fruit from these packing associations is inferior in quality and pack to that received in our markets from Washington and Oregon packing associations.

The fruit industry of this province is an important one. It is estimated that $25,000,000 represents the capital invested in orchards, irrigation projects in connection therewith, etc., and this important and growing industry should receive every encouragement and be protected from unfair and ruinous competition from foreign growers. Let us use every legitimate means to conserve the Canadian market for the Canadian fruit grower. And thus keep in the province the large amount of money annually sent out to foreign countries for apples, 35¢ car loads of apples were shipped in to the markets of Vancouver and Victoria during 1912, representing a value of over $255,000.

WM. E. SCOTT,
 Deputy Minister of Agriculture.

ment at Ottawa reminds me of the story told of the prisoner of Monaco. Six gendarmes perform all the duties of standing army and police force in the little principality of Monaco, and their chief duties seem to be keeping children off the beautiful gardens of Monte Carlo and occasionally escorting a broken gambler to the train for Nice. All the inhabitants have been made so prosperous by the attractions of the famous Casino that crime is practically unknown. But some years ago, so the story goes, a murder was committed and the murderer in due course was convicted, and sentenced, capital punishment not being allowed, to imprisonment for life. The only the beginning of the authorities' troubles. There being no jail, accommodation for the prisoner had to be obtained and one of the standing army appointed later. This occupying the whole attention of one of the small forces, after awhile the prisoner was let out on parole every morning and returned to his prison every evening. This, too, becoming annoying, it was suggested to the prisoner that he should go free, but he was quite satisfied with his free board and lodging in a beautiful climate and refused to accept his liberty. Finally, so the story goes, the difficulty was overcome and the troublesome prisoner got rid of by a pension being granted to him. One wonders if

TO-DAY IN CANADIAN HISTORY

Upon this day, March 5th, in the year 1782, Governor Haldimand addressed a letter to Lord George Germaine (Secretary of State for the Colonies) giving the disquieting intelligence that there was a plan in agitation for another invasion of Canada by the American rebels; that the French Canadians were in a hostile mood; and that a report was circulating that the Pope had absolved them from their allegiance to the King if they would return to that of France. Haldimand stated further that arms and clothing had been sent to Albany for ten thousand troops, and that Nova Scotia also was to be attacked. He had few troops for defending the country, and he expected that if the rebels with several hundred French soldiers should invade Canada that the Canadians would naturally go over to them. It was the effect of the French alliance with the Americans that he dreaded most of all. The same idea had naturally occurred to the American leaders, but, having no wish to have France again in possession of Canada, and in fact, fearing that it might put them at the mercy of their allies, they thought it more prudent to refrain from the combined attack, which, on the surface, appeared so likely to succeed.

FINE DURBAR PICTURES

Series of Kinemacolor Films Shows Great Coronation Ceremony at Delhi.

Color pictures in motion grow in popularity with the development of mechanical improvements, and the Kinemacolor series of the Delhi Durbar, showing the coronation ceremonies when King George the Fifth was crowned as Emperor of India at the ancient capital of the Moguls, fifteen months ago, produced the greatest enthusiasm at the Victoria theatre last evening at the first night of the performance, which is to be repeated to-night and to-morrow and all next week except Wednesday.

A dash of color was given to the sombre appearance of the stalls by the uniforms of the officers of the Fifth regiment, who attended by invitation. The pictures are remarkably realistic, and bring home to thousands who did not have the opportunity of seeing the wealth of color, the barbaric splendor and the vivid imagery of the Orient as displayed at this historic ceremony, some idea of what a durbar or gathering of great chiefs really may become under the azure skies of India.

Harold B. Meade, who conducted the travelogue, mentioned the methods by which these views were obtained, and said that as they were taken by royal command every facility was given the operators to make a success of the series. The company has received, he stated, the congratulations of the royal actors when the films were put on at a special performance in London.

One of the best films of all is that depicting the Royal Horse Artillery firing a salute of 101 guns, realism only lacking the noise of the report. The pictures of the troops, numbering 50,000, are naturally a feature, the presence of 20,000 British and 30,000 native troops lending a display of militarism unknown in the romantic history of India and making of the plain a living kaleidoscope of colors.

The various phases of the ceremony are shown, from the state entry into Delhi to the reading of the proclamation establishing the venerable capital once again as the Eternal City of India, including the imposing fealty ceremony by which the native chiefs paid their homage to the overlord. A series of pictures of Calcutta, including one of the best groups of all, that of scenes on the Hugli, alive with steamers and river craft, brings to the mind vividly the differences of Orient and Occident.

AND NOW—THE GREATEST TOWNSITE OF ALL

It is beautifully situated on the banks of the Salmon River, in the centre of British Columbia's greatest of many great gardens of fertility, the Salmon River Valley, lying immediately north of the Fraser and Nechaco Rivers in the Cariboo District. It occupies the key position as a distributing point for the whole of the Salmon River Plains, famed for the marvelous richness of their soils, upon which hundreds of farmers are now settling, to be ready with their products while the railways are being constructed. To the northwest is the great Peace River Country, the southern portion of which will also be tributary to the new townsite, which we have named

FORT SALMON

This uniquely situated townsite occupies a most commanding position in relation to the whole surrounding country. In fact, as a situation for an exceedingly large, beautiful and important city, there is none other like it in the whole province of British Columbia.

To the planner of a great city it would seem that here at Fort Salmon nature has simply excelled herself in laying out a landscape that would afford the easiest, most efficient and sanitary drainage and sewage facilities for a large population, and had, in addition, provided an inexhaustible supply of pure, clear, sparkling waters for all purposes. A large portion of the townsite is already cleared, so that building operations may be begun without difficulty or delay.

The B. C. & Alaska Railway is surveyed through from Fort George to Summit Lake, about four miles north of Fort Salmon, and construction is scheduled to commence as early as practicable in 1913. The projected route of the Pine Pass & Edmonton Railway passes the northeast corner of the townsite. Undoubtedly, too, the Pacific & Hudson Bay Railway, the Edmonton, Dunvegan & British Columbia Railway and other Government chartered lines heading through the Peace River country toward the Pacific Coast will consider Fort Salmon too tempting a point to overlook. Three large blocks of lots have been reserved for the accommodation of railways, and more will be set aside as required. For public buildings 198x120 feet are reserved, and for school purposes 297x120 feet. For park purposes there is a full block of 36 lots on the banks of the Salmon River.

Land in the vicinity of Fort Salmon averages about $15 per acre, and the typical farm contains about 80 acres. About 300 actual settlers have bought during the past season. Hence the investment represented, counting land alone, exceeds $300,000; and when the buildings and equipment are added, it will be brought up to about $700,000. That's a rather good start, isn't it? And they are all tributary to Fort Salmon.

The climate is singularly delightful, extremes in temperature not being great. Summer days are warm, nights are cool. Rainfall is not excessive, and yet there is no lack of sufficient moisture. The winter months are comparatively mild in comparison with those of the prairie provinces, and the season is much shorter.

TO LIVE AND TO BREATHE IN FORT SALMON IS A PLEASURE

Prices Are $50 to $62.50 Per Lot

All Lots Have 33 Feet Frontage on Streets 66 Feet Wide and Run Back 120 Feet to 20-Foot Lane

To introduce and to advertise Fort Salmon Townsite to the public is the reason for the remarkably low prices at which the lots are offered.

Inside Lots, $50.00 Each

Terms: $15 per lot cash, balance at rate of $5 per month per lot for seven months. No interest. No taxes. Five per cent discount for all cash.

TITLE DEED—Indefeasible Title guaranteed by the Government of British Columbia, given to every purchaser upon payment of full purchase price. No charges whatever for conveyancing or notary's fees.

Speaking of the advancement of values throughout Western Canada a short while ago, John W. Dafeo, editor Manitoba Free Press, Winnipeg, said to Miss Agnes C. Laut, the astute and talented Canadian authoress, who duly chronicled his remarks in The Saturday Evening Post:

"If I had had courage and faith five or six years ago, I might have been a millionaire to-day, but I thought it was stark moon-madness, and would not touch the thing with tongs."

John W. Dafeo was speaking of the prairie provinces, which were just on the move about five or six years ago. John W. has since seen many of his friends getting kicked into the millionaire class. If John W. had had their courage and faith, he would have been kicked just in the same way. But John W. wasn't kicked.

Now, what are you going to do to-day, when British Columbia is just beginning, as did the prairie provinces five or six years ago? Are you going to lack courage and faith in the greatest province of Canada now, and be sorry for it afterwards?

Buy right now, and buy in Fort Salmon townsite. Don't wait five or six years and be sorry.

Ministers Present.

The corresponding secretary, Miss Bromley-Jubb, read letters of regret at their inability to be present from the Lord Bishop of Columbia, the Dean of Columbia, and His Worship Mayor Morley. The ministers present included Rev. T. W. Gladstone and Rev. Joseph McCoy, who referred to the homeless condition of many girls arriving in this country, and the dangers and hardships which they were exposed to. Rev. William Stevenson, who was also among those present, urged the need of the new building and said that the Christian churches in the city might be counted on to give the Y. W. C. A. every assistance.

During the evening, prior to the serving of refreshments and the social half hour with which the proceedings concluded, the following names were added to the list of directors: Mesdames Seales, Fawcett, E. S. Smith, W. N. Mitchell, Williscroft, Beckwith, Donald, J. D. Gordon, Popert, George Bell, Hammen, Hambroff, and Andrew Wright. The financial statement of the association will be submitted some time during the present week, and the election of officers will take place at the next meeting.

BIG WOOL SHORTAGE

Australian Clip This Year is Short 300,000 Bales or More.

That there will be a total shortage of about 300,000 bales in the Australian wool clip this year, was the statement made to the Times yesterday by E. Rose, an Australian, and H. W. "There were 200,000 bales sold in Sydney, 600,000 in Melbourne, 250,000 in Brisbane, 100,000 in Adelaide, and 32,000 in Tasmania," said H. W. Benskin; "and the prices ruled higher than usual on account of the certainty of a shortage. Scoured wool went up to 52 cents per pound, greasy lambs 46 cents, and greasy fleeces 36 cents."

"Is there any prospect of wools going higher as a result?" "It is not a possibility, it is a certainty," Mr. Benskin answered. "Australian wool growers control the price of wools all over the world. If the clip there is small then that means that all over the world wool goes up, because that is the greatest wool producing country in the world. I think that the shortage this year is about 300,000 bales, and at an average weight of 260 pounds per bale the shortage amounts to 108,000,000 pounds. This is due, from what I

Well, What Would You Get If You Went There?

HAVEN'T you heard men right here in town say, "How I would like to go over to London or down to the States for my clothes!"

Well, what would you get when you got there? If you went to London, to the best tailors, you'd get the same cloths and the same patterns that you can get in Fit-Reform Suits at $25, $28, $30 and $35. If you went to the States, you wouldn't get any better workmanship, even at the most expensive shops, than you get in Fit-Reform Suits.

Compare a Fit-Reform Suit at Any Price From $18 to $35 With One Made in London or in the States at $10 More

Compare styles, tailoring, cloth, lining, finish—and you'll find that for downright satisfaction, service and value, you get a bigger money's worth in Fit-Reform garments than you can get in London or the States for $10 more.
